Do you wish to have a happy and fulfilled life, a joyful life of faith with exciting experiences?

If yes, then this book is just right for you. People have shared more than 500 experiences with me of how they have experienced positive changes in their faith life by reading this book. Therefore, further insights have been added to this new standard edition. They show how Steps to Personal Revival can lead us to:

- Recognize the most precious of all gifts that Jesus offers us: the Holy Spirit
- A proper self-assessment in relation to our spiritual status
- Understand the two simple steps that lead to an attractive spiritual life and the certainty of salvation.
- Know the great benefit of a life in the power and guidance of the Holy Spirit and what losses we suffer without Him.
- To become aware that our prayers with promises have a completely different quality. We then pray more joyfully, with confidence and more depth. And after such a prayer, we can be sure that we have received the Holy Spirit.
- Their great joy caused them to be witnesses and distributors of the book.

God wants to make a big difference in your life. It makes a crucial difference if you work for God or if our wonderful Lord can work through you. Jesus longs for an intimate relationship with you. And He wants to get closer to others through you. Great blessings and joy come from re-reading the book multiple times. Study and practice the suggestions for six weeks (3 x 14 days) and marvel at what God accomplishes in your life.
I currently pastor two churches in California. I first came across your material when listening to Pastor Dwight Nelson [see below] on his weekly podcast. It totally impacted my soul at once. I had heard about other Holy Spirit materials before, but I confess that I never cared much for them. I definitely believe that for some reason, God has chosen this current time to reach more people with the Holy Spirit. And I’m so glad I have found it from your efforts.

One thing I can witness to you: Right in the first chapter we are exposed in a simple way to very powerful truths which call our minds to stop and rethink. And the process of reading multiple times is very effective. To everybody whom I talk, discuss and preach about the book, the Holy Spirit subject becomes more and more attractive again. It’s like we are hearing about it for the first time. I can see it in myself. I could not move out of the first chapter before preaching at least 3 sermons about the subject covered in it. I just don’t know how to better explain it, but I could not stop reading the book and the results of that were felt in my churches. I did spread the word, and this last year my district has shown a significant growth. All of that I attribute to God and the way the Holy Spirit has empowered our members. And we are looking for more to come in the new year!

D.R. Jan. 2018 Excerpt

Pastor Dwight Nelson, Leading Pastor of the Pioneer Memorial Church in Andrews University, said that this little book [Steps to Personal Revival] has “changed the inside of me. I want to do the same for you”.

He preached a series of three sermons: “Ground Zero and the New Reformation: How to be baptized with the Holy Spirit?” He quoted from ‘Steps to Personal Revival’ and recommended it. That led to thousands of downloads and orders of books.

His personal testimony and the three sermons are at www.steps-to-personal-revival.info

A FRUITFUL LIFE

Jesus:
“… He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears MUCH FRUIT …” John 15:5

How can I abide in Jesus?
Jesus invites us: Come to Me! (Matt. 11:28) Whoever has come to Jesus is also invited to remain. (John 15:4) And how does this work?
“Abide in Me, and I in you.”
“Abiding in Christ“ means:
• a constant receiving of His Spirit
• a life of unreserved surrender
• to His service.” Desire of Ages p.676.2

This explanation really opened my eyes and gave me clarity for my walk with God. For me this is the secret to a happy Christian life. (John 15:11) It is my prayer and special wish that this will also show many the way to a joyful and fulfilled life. These words are the foundation for the three booklets in the series, Steps to Personal Revival.

What ist the connection of the three booklets in the Steps to Personal Revival series?

No. 1 Steps to Personal Revival
Being filled with the Holy Spirit
How can you experience this?
It is about a constant asking and receiving of His Spirit.

No. 2 Abide in Jesus
How is this done?
It is about a life of unreserved surrender to Jesus Christ.

No. 3 Spirit-filled Co-Workers with Jesus
How can you become a Spirit-filled co-worker?
It is about unreserved surrender to His service with all its brilliant consequences.
(Available Autumn 2019)

Encouragement
Experience has shown that the study of these precious truths is particularly blessed, when, following the personal study a daily common devotion is performed in twos. There is double blessing for couples! (With others maybe telephone, Skype) Also a daily or weekly time for conversation and prayer in a group is very stimulating.
OUR LORD HIMSELF HAS GIVEN THE COMMAND

LET YOURSELVES BE CONSISTENTLY AND REPEATEDLY FILLED ANEW WITH THE SPIRIT!

INTRODUCTION

STEPS TO PERSONAL REVIVAL

Filled with the Holy Spirit

Why was it that I was suddenly and intensively occupied with the matter of “Life in the Holy Spirit”?

On August 14, 2011, when I was in Kandergrund in the Bernese Highlands in Switzerland an important connection became very clear to me. I recognized a spiritual cause for why we are losing part of our youth which shocked me greatly. I thought of my children and grandchildren. Since then I have been intensively occupied with this subject.

Now I believe that the same spiritual cause is behind many of our problems; specifically, personal problems, problems in marriages and families, in local churches and the world-wide church. It is the lack of the Holy Spirit.

If this is the cause, then we should urgently address this issue. If the cause can be eliminated or considerably reduced, then many problems will become superfluous or will be resolved.
WHAT OTHERS HAVE TO SAY ABOUT THIS DEFICIENCY:

▶ Emil Brunner: *Evangelical reformed theologian, wrote that the Holy Spirit “has always more or less been the stepchild of theology.”*³

▶ D. Martin Lloyd-Jones: “If I may give my honest opinion, then there is no topic on biblical belief that has been so neglected in the past or present as the topic of the Holy Spirit…. I am sure that this is the cause for the weakness of the evangelical faith.”⁴

▶ LeRoy E. Froom: “I am convinced that the lack of the Holy Spirit is our worst problem.”⁵

▶ Dwight Nelson: “Our church has to the point of exhaustion developed admirable forms, plans and programs, but if we don’t finally admit to our spiritual bankruptcy [lack of the Holy Spirit], which has overtaken many of us ministers and leaders, then we will never be able to get out of our Pro-Forma-Christianity.”⁶

First, we want to look at the fruits that have grown where this deficiency has been eradicated. Then we want to look at some advice that our Lord Jesus gave about the Holy Spirit.

MY WISH

I wish each person that is already living in the Holy Spirit to attain the fullness of the Spirit. For those who haven’t lived with the Holy Spirit or have only had an insufficient life with the Holy Spirit, I hope that this is the beginning of a new fulfilled and victorious life.

Dear Leader,
Do you want your area to grow spiritually and numerically? But is this really possible today? Yes, it is definitely possible. How?

“What you intend, you will not succeed by the power of an army and not by human power: No, my spirit will effect it! I promise, the LORD Almighty God.” (Zech 4:6 Hfa)

How is this supposed to happen? I think we all still have much to learn here. Do we also want to learn from the experiences of others? I’m convinced of the benefits of doing so. May the Lord, through His Spirit, show us all His way to true spiritual and numerical growth.

The shared experiences through Steps to Personal Revival, which about 500 readers told, show that this booklet can be of valuable assistance. But spiritual and numerical growth requires more than just reading a booklet once or distributing it. It is necessary to put the presented elements of a revival into practice. It needs your heart’s involvement. I dare say: Your area will only go as far as you go. No one can guide another, unless he himself has gone on the path before. Our lives, our prayers, our testimonies, our conversations, our influence and our sermons will be used by God. In fact, multiple reading seems to be a key: Educational research has shown that it is necessary to read such a crucial theme for our lives six to ten times before you understand it thoroughly. Try it at least once. The results will convince you.

TESTIMONIES

Two testimonies from a pastor and a Union Departmental Leader, now retired, USA:

1. Testimonies—I read your book Steps to Personal Revival three times. I never thought I would find such new insights about prayer. Prayer, which is based on God’s promises like you explained. Since then, God has achieved victories in my life that I never thought possible.—I have been invited to preach at a camp meeting. Your book gave me the topic.
June 26, 2017—F.S. Abbreviated

2. Testimonies—Since I started reading your book (I have read it 6 times according to the advice in the book) and learned how to pray with promises, my life has been transformed. …The Lord guided me to prepare a sermon for the camp meeting about our greatest need, the refreshing showers of the Spirit of God. In all the years I dedicated to the ministry, I have never felt the power of the Holy Spirit moving among people as among those 3,000 in that auditorium.
—My wife has noticed a complete change in me. Even I am surprised at myself. July 25th, 2017—F.S. Abbreviated 40 Days Concept—from 17 to 65 members
The small church in Cologne-Kalk, Germany, had 17 German, Spanish and Portuguese members. Pastor J. Lotze invited them to carry out the 40 Day concept. They studied a 40 Days book in groups of two, each one prayed daily for five unreached people and they established personal contact with them. On the 40th day they had a visitor’s sabbath and after that was a 14-day evangelistic campaign. They were able to baptize 13 people within a short time. They repeated the 40 Days concept several times and have grown to 65 members within 4 years. (See 40 Days books for the 40 Days concept and go to “Experiences” No.19 to find more about the experience from Cologne.)

Lugano, Italian speaking area of Switzerland—very secular
Pastor Matthias Maag had excellent experiences as a missionary in South Africa with the 40 Days books by Dennis Smith. When he returned to Switzerland, he started immediately with this concept. There were 15 baptisms in the first year [which is very extraordinary in this region]. One lady had been a regular visitor at the church for 15 years. During the 40 Days she decided to be baptized.

Youth
My name is Alina van Rensburg and I’m the Young Adult Director for the South Queensland Conference [12,200 members in Australia]. I had a young lady share Steps to Personal Revival with me at the beginning of this year and I was absolutely blown away. It explores the exact theme that God placed on the hearts of my husband and myself: awakening to the Holy Spirit in our lives!!—I could tell you so many stories, but in essence, we have been so blessed by this little book! Greg Pratt [Discipleship and Spiritual Development Director SQC] had an extra 300 books that I distributed to all of my young adult leaders at our leadership meetings earlier this year and the response has been absolutely incredible. So now I would like to source an extra 150 books to give my young adults at Big Camp this year, to study during Life Group Sessions.

366 baptisms + 35 in baptismal class
The Secretary of the Burundi Union, Paul Irakoze, [130,000 members, 100,000 Steps to Personal Revival in Kirundi], said that as a whole 320 former members came back through the influence of the brochure. They were accepted by a new baptism in March 2017.
Deaf people read the booklet three times. Then they shared their experiences with other hearing impaired people. Result: In March 2017, we baptized 25 deaf people.

Prisoners—We distributed the booklet to our church members in Mpimba Prison. They were moved by the Holy Spirit and started sharing their faith. This last Sabbath, 21 prisoners were baptized and 35 are preparing for baptism. This is the fruit of the booklet Steps to Personal Revival. Abbreviated

Study Period/Week of Prayer—The Burundi Union had a week of prayer for their 130,000 members in Nov. 2017 using Steps to Personal Revival again. The sermons of our Secretary on this topic were also broadcast on the Adventist radio station every evening.

Students—Pastor Dwight Nelson, Leading Pastor of Andrews University, said that this little book “changed the inside of me. I want to do the same for you.” On Sept. 2nd 2017 he started a series of three sermons: “Ground Zero and the New Reformation: How to be baptized with the Holy Spirit?” He quoted from Steps to Personal Revival and recommended it to everyone. That led to 4,000 downloads and the order of thousands booklets. Link to these sermons and his blog: www.pmchurch.tv/sermons or www.steps-to-personal-revival.info

An excellent idea—from USA

I listened to the sermon series by Dwight Nelson yesterday. As I introduce the book Steps to Personal Revival to my church this Sabbath, I will play the first 5 minutes in hopes that his testimony in regards to the book will ignite some interest. After potluck, with my Pastors permission, we will show the rest of the sermon to those interested! D. W.

Evangelism

Dwight Nelson writes in his blog Oct. 11, 2017 (shortened and edited)

Ninety-one “guests” (as they call them) joined with Zagreb Adventists in the nightly ninety-minute program. …On a personal note and in grateful appreciation for your intercessory prayers, I need to testify I’ve not had an experience of public evangelistic preaching quite like this one in Zagreb in all the years I’ve been involved in evangelism. As I told the pastors here at Pioneer, I’m absolutely certain it was and remains the fruit of the Holy Spirit’s own full-court intervention day and night in that city in response to concerted prayer. I remind you, many of us back in September began seeking God for a daily baptism of the Holy Spirit (as Christ invites us to do in Luke 11:13). Which is why I can be confident in attributing what I personally experienced and witnessed in Zagreb to His direct work. All of which says nothing about me—but says everything about the veracity of Jesus’ promise—“But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be My witnesses…” (Acts 1:8) So whatever we do, let’s not abandon our daily seeking for the Spirit of God’s fresh, empowering baptism every morning.

Reconciliation
There are very good experiences of individuals and families (see experience nos. 2/17; 3/31; 3/35; 3/40; 4/52; 4/56). Experiences of entire churches going from tensions, quarrels, divisions, injuries, no forgiveness, emotional outbursts and personal attacks to loving and peaceful forgiveness and reconciliation (experiences no. 1/10; 7/84).

Young Mother—Kids—USA
Indeed, I sense a great responsibility in raising three little boys. I have and can see that the only hope I have is to daily ask for the Holy Spirit to possess me each day. Since reading your book, I have seen what a difference it has made in the behaviour of my boys. I have patience where I normally wouldn’t have patience; I have love and compassion where I would have frustration. And they are more often than not responding with a surrendered heart. We are growing certainly, but how thankful I am to understand the simple truth of how Jesus can live in me! D. W.

90% of the newly baptized members are well integrated in the church after two years.
The Rwanda union wrote on February 14, 2019: “We have been greatly blessed by the book Steps to Personal Revival (130,000 copies in Kinyarwanda). In 2016 we conducted a country-wide mission program “Total Member Involvement”. Subsequently, by God’s grace 110,000 people were baptized in 2016 and the beginning of 2017. At their baptism each person was given a copy of this book as a present. Thanks to this book 90% of the newly baptized have become active church members. It is a very good book that shows how a person can have a relationship with Jesus through the Holy Spirit.” MKN (slightly abbreviated)
‘How to raise interest?’ Under this menu point you will find valuable suggestions. One thing, which is very easy to start, is the suggestion of “Coordinated Reading”. The strongest incentive is through holding a “seminar”. You can hold it yourself, or have a guest speaker (or use a video; only available in certain languages.) You can still enhance the experience of a seminar if you have “Coordinated Reading” before or after the seminar.

My request: May I—as an older brother—recommend to you: pray and read the booklet several times with someone who is near to you. This will notably influence the progress in your group, church or conference.

Could the next step be to share your insights and experiences with the Pastors, Elders and other key-members? It is so important to reach their hearts. That is how Ethiopia started. In July 2017, 500 pastors received the booklet in Amharic at the end of a revival-week.—In the North Philippines Union the booklet was presented at a prayer-conference in Filipino to 1,500 Elders in June 2017.

Dear Leader!
Let us grow in the Holy Spirit. The Lord himself has given the command [MB20.3]: “Let yourselves be constantly and repeatedly filled anew with the Spirit”. (Eph 5:18)
Christ in us and the Holy Spirit make us “heralds of good tidings” (Is 40:9). Don’t forget Jesus’ last words on earth: “But you will receive the Holy Spirit and be my witnesses through His power [ability, equipping, supernatural power].” (Acts 1:8)

Bring our churches closer to Jesus
I would like to thank you for translating and using this book for our entire Union. The encouragement and teachings contained in this book have personally blessed me, and I am sure that the Holy Spirit will use them to bring our church closer to Jesus and personally experience the life-changing power of the Holy Spirit at work.

I asked God: Show me what I miss!
I want to praise God for the book Steps to Personal Revival. My way with God has been a bit difficult lately. I asked God to reveal to me what I miss. I often hear the broadcasts from 3ABN. It was about 2 a.m. when a calm voice woke me. When I awoke, I heard 3ABN and the speakers just mentioned the theme “Holy Spirit” and referred to the website steps-to-personal-revival.info. I immediately downloaded the book and have been reading it ever since in my devotional time. This booklet has opened my spiritual eyes. I now recognize more clearly how crucial the Holy Spirit is and why he works here with us. I always knew he existed but could not grasp the dimension. This booklet made me understand who he is and what role he plays in my spiritual journey and also how important it is to invite the Holy Spirit on a daily basis to fight the old selfishness and other sinful desires. I have been reading this booklet out one after the other. It has made me very blessed. Now I also understand why my spiritual path has been so stony so far: I was not connected to the Holy Spirit, the source of power. I will pray for you.

We suffer from spiritual not financial poverty
Late last year, I attended a meeting at Spicer Adventist University. The main US speaker had a copy of Steps to Personal Revival. His speeches were from this book. He said, “We suffer from spiritual, not financial poverty.”

Personal Thoughts and Discussion Guide

1. What was always theology’s “stepchild”? What consequences does that have?

2. What promise can we claim? (Zechariah 4:6) What could this mean for you and your church?

3. What important conditions have to be met in order to expect good results?

4. Which of the quoted experiences especially touched you and why?

Our Prayer Time

• Contact your prayer partner and discuss the topic.
• Pray with your prayer partner …
  1. for a heart that is receptive, eager to learn and is open to the working of the Holy Spirit.
  2. for a clearer understanding of where you haven’t paid enough attention to the working of the Holy Spirit.
  3. for all the pastors, teachers and other leaders in the church—that they will experience the power of the Holy Spirit and be willing to be led by Him.
  4. for personal experiences with God—how He can work through the Holy Spirit in you.
What did Jesus teach about the Holy Spirit?
Are you acquainted with Jesus’ most powerful message?

A FEW OF THE FIRST PERSONAL TESTIMONIES

Back to our “first love”: A sister wrote to me: My friend and I are currently studying the 40 Days book for the third time, alternating with the booklet Steps to Personal Revival. Before we discovered this material our faith experience and prayer life wasn’t what it had once had been. We longed to find our “first love” again. We have found it! We thank God with our whole hearts. It is so wonderful how our loving God answers prayers and that He reveals how His Spirit is working—on us and on the people we are praying for. M. S.

Jesus entered our lives: Another person wrote about these books: “… they have become a great and long-awaited blessing in my life. Just like many other church members and a sister from our church have experienced, something was always missing in our faith experience and now we have had the privilege of experiencing how Jesus has entered our lives and has begun to change us. He is still working on us and step by step is drawing us closer to Him.” S. K.
Did Jesus’ disciples ask themselves: How can Jesus exercise such a great influence? Was it connected with His prayer life? That is why they asked Him: “Lord, teach us to pray.” Jesus responded to their request.

His prayer lesson in Luke 11:1-13 has three parts: The Lord’s Prayer, the parable of the friend coming at midnight and as a climax, the continual request for the Holy Spirit.

In the parable (verses 5-8) visitors arrive at a man’s home late in the evening and he has nothing to serve them. Because of his need, he immediately goes to his neighbor. He explains to him that “he has nothing” and asks for bread. He continues to ask until he finally receives the bread. Now he has bread - the bread of life. Now he can share with his guests. We learn here that we have to come to Jesus so that we can share with other people. When we want to pass on the bread of life, then we often realize that we have nothing at all!

Now Jesus links this parable (problem: I have nothing) with the request for the Holy Spirit by saying: “Therefore I say to you, ask, and it will be given you.” (Luke 11:9 NKJV) Then follows:

JESUS’ SPECIAL APPEAL: THEREFORE ASK FOR THE HOLY SPIRIT

There is a particular Bible passage in which Jesus emphatically commands us to ask for the Holy Spirit. I know of no other passage where Jesus so lovingly urged us to take something to heart. These verses are found in His lesson on prayer in Luke 11. There He emphasized 10 times that we should ask for the Holy Spirit. Luke 11:9-13 NKJV:

“So I say to you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened. If a son asks for bread from any father among you, will he give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent instead of a fish? Or if he asks for an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!”

In these few verses Jesus used the verb “ask” six times; then he replaced “ask” and emphasized it with “seek” two times—an action—and two more times with “knock”—also an action word.
Doesn’t He clearly show us that we have to take action in order to be filled with the Holy Spirit? The last “ask” is used in the continuous tense in Greek. That means that we aren’t to ask only once, but rather to ask continually. Here Jesus not only makes asking a matter of urgency but implores us to ask continually. Certainly He also wants to awaken our desire for the Holy Spirit with this heartfelt invitation. This urgent invitation shows us Jesus’ conviction that we would be missing something crucial, if we don’t continually ask for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. He was clearly calling our attention to the fact that we absolutely need the Holy Spirit. In this way He wants us to continually receive the rich blessings of the Holy Spirit.

In Christ’s Object Lessons it says: “God does not say, ask once, and you shall receive. He bids us ask, to unwearyingly persist in prayer. The persistent asking brings the petitioner into a more earnest attitude, and gives him an increased desire to receive the things for which he asks.”

Jesus then gave three examples, which show behavior that is unimaginable even for sinful human fathers. He wanted to show us that it is even more unimaginable that our heavenly Father wouldn’t give us the Holy Spirit when we ask. Jesus wants us to be sure that we will receive the Holy Spirit when we ask in the appropriate way. With this promise and other promises we can ask in faith and know that we have already received what we requested. (1 Joh 5:14,15; more information in chapter 5)

This special invitation shows us that according to Jesus something essential is missing when we don’t persistently ask for the Holy Spirit. He draws it to our attention that we absolutely need the Holy Spirit. He wants us to continually experience the rich blessings of the Holy Spirit.

This part of His lesson on prayer is a unique process. The Holy Spirit is God’s greatest gift—the gift which brings all the other gifts with it. This was Jesus’ crowning gift to His disciples and clear proof of His love. I think we can understand that such a valuable gift wouldn’t be pushed on someone. It is only given to those who express their desire for this gift and appreciate it.

He will be given to those who have surrendered their lives to Jesus; He will be given to those who live in continual commitment. (John 15: 4-5) Commitment is expressed by:

7 Ellen G. White, Christ’s Object Lessons (1900), p. 145.3
A yearning for God ("whoever thirsts" John 7:37)
Trust in God ("he who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said" John 7:38)
Complete surrender as a result of trusting God ("placing your whole life at God's disposal" Rom 12:1)
Following God in everything ("those who obey Him" Acts 5:32)
We confess every known sin ("If we confess our sins, he will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness." 1 John 1:9)
Give up their own way, go God’s way and do this according to God’s will ("repent and be baptized” Acts 2:38)
Not to plan anything wrong ("if I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear” Ps 66:18)
Realize and admit to our great need ("I have nothing” Luke 11:6)

Can’t you clearly see how valuable this gift is? When you think about all these prerequisites, then you will probably find deficiencies in yourself.
I have made it my habit to pray daily for a desire for the Holy Spirit in connection with John 7:37 NKJV: “If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink.”

We can pray: “Lord Jesus, I completely say yes to all the prerequisites for receiving the Holy Spirit. I sincerely ask that you now, today, fulfill them in me.” Our wonderful God is even there for us in fulfilling the prerequisites.

THE HOLY SPIRIT IS THE SOURCE OF A FULFILLED LIFE
According to Jesus, why did He come to this earth? He said: “I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly.” (John 10:10 NKJV)

Jesus wants us to experience this new Holy Spirit-filled life now and to continue it in a completely different dimension after His second coming in God’s kingdom throughout eternity.

8 It is worthwhile to pray with promises. If you want to know more about this, please read chapter 4 of Steps to Personal Revival.
He also shows us that the source of a fulfilled life is the Holy Spirit: “… ‘If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.’ But this He spoke concerning the Spirit…” (John 7:37-39 NKJV)

DURING HIS LIFE HERE ON EARTH DID JESUS GIVE US A CORRESPONDING EXAMPLE?

We know that Mary conceived Jesus through the Holy Spirit (Matt 1:18). We know that after His baptism He prayed: “And the Holy Spirit descended in bodily form like a dove upon Him…” (Luke 3:22) Under these circumstances was it necessary and important that He receive the Holy Spirit daily? Why does He admonish us to repeatedly ask for the Holy Spirit? I quote from Ellen G. White: “Morning by morning he communicated with his Father in heaven, receiving from him daily a fresh baptism of the Holy Spirit.”

There is a statement in Acts of the Apostles: “To the consecrated worker there is wonderful consolation in the knowledge that even Christ during His life on earth sought His Father daily for fresh supplies of needed grace …”

Jesus indeed was an example to us in this. We have to ask ourselves: If Jesus daily needed a refreshing from the Holy Spirit, then how much more important is it for you and me?

The apostle Paul really understood Jesus’ objective. In his letter to the church in Ephesus, Paul confirms in chapter 1:13 that they had been sealed by the Holy Spirit when they became believers. In chapter 3:16-17 he encourages them to be strong in the Spirit. In chapter 4:30 he admonishes them: “Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God”. And in chapter 5:18 (NKJV) Paul, as an authorized apostle, calls the Ephesians and us to: “… be filled with the Spirit” or “let yourselves be continuously and repeatedly filled again with the Spirit”. We see that even if we received the Holy Spirit when we were born again, that we in general need a daily refreshing. Therefore, it is important for the spiritual life and growth of a Christian, that they be daily filled with the Holy Spirit.

11 Johannes Mager, Auf den Spuren des Heiligen Geistes (Lüneburg, 1999), S. 101
Our Sabbath School Study Guide says the following about Ephesians 5:18: “What does it mean ‘to be baptized’ with the Holy Spirit? Jesus personally explained this with a synonym. A person is ‘baptized’ with the Holy Spirit (Act 1:5) when the Holy Spirit ‘has come upon’ them (v. 8). To be baptized means to be fully immersed in something—usually water. This involves the whole person. Baptism with the Holy Spirit means to be completely under the influence of the Holy Spirit—to be completely ‘filled’ by Him. This isn’t a one-time experience, but rather something that has to be continually repeated, as Paul illustrates in Ephesians 5:18b with the tense of the Greek verb ‘filled.’”

JESUS’ FAREWELL WORDS AND THE HOLY SPIRIT

In Jesus’ farewell words He conveyed joy and hope by telling them that the Holy Spirit would come in His place. Jesus tells the disciples something surprising in John 16:7: “Nevertheless I tell you the truth. It is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Comforter will not come to you; but if I depart, I will send Him to you.”

A NEW Advantageous Solution

Jesus told the disciples something surprising: “It is to your advantage that I go away.” This means that the new solution, that He is with us through the Holy Spirit, is more advantageous than Jesus being personally present. In this way He isn’t limited, but rather He can be by each person, no matter where He currently is.

A PERSONAL TESTIMONY FROM A TEACHER AND ONE OF HER STUDENTS:

When the booklet Steps to Personal Revival from H. Haubeil was handed out in my home church about a year ago, I read it through very quickly. Already while reading it I had more experiences with God than ever before—this fascinated and encouraged me.

---

12 Sabbath School Study Guide July 17, 2014
In the booklet’s appendix I found the following suggestion: “Pedagogical research has shown that it is necessary to read or listen six to ten times to a vital topic till we have thoroughly understood it.”

These encouraging words captivated my attention: “Try it at least once. The result will convince you.”

I wanted to experience that and already by the third reading it seized me and I felt a great love for our Redeemer, which I had yearned for my whole life. Within two months I had read it through six times and the result was worth it.

It was as if I could understand what it would be like when Jesus comes close to us and we can look into His pure, kind and loving eyes. From then on I didn’t want to be without this joy in our Savior.

When I woke up in the morning I already yearned for my morning worship time in order to again experience fellowship with God and during the day I prayed quietly that the Holy Spirit would help me with my thoughts during conversations, my example, while teaching and communicating.

When a child craved attention and acted accordingly, God gave me strength and wisdom to deal with it.

Since then my work days are filled with the presence of the Creator. He helps me literally in my everyday life. Since then I pray in the morning and in between times for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. It is as if you are closer to heaven and can already taste what it will be like there.

While reading the booklet the thought came to me that my students in the school should also share in this experience. I teach the 10–15 year-olds in our Elijah Adventist School in Vorarlberg, Austria. So I prayed for God to give me opportunities. Very soon afterwards I had one of my most wonderful experiences with how the Holy Spirit can work in young people’s hearts.

A 13 YEAR-OLD RUFFIAN AND THE HOLY SPIRIT

The experience started a year before I read the booklet on the Holy Spirit. A new student came to our school and within a few days our peaceful oasis was changed into a rough scuffle room. The boy was 13 years-old then—he was the biggest of all the children and correspondingly strong. Many things that had been learned during the school year and had brought wonderful fruit seemed to disappear in a moment.

Let him share it in his own words: “When I came to my present school, I had no idea what awaited me. On my second day of school I let myself get provoked, snapped and started a fight with one of my classmates. I hit him even though he was considerably weaker than I was, berated him and never wanted to see him again.

Later I realized my mistake and apologized, just as I always had in the past. After that I had a conversation with the headmaster. In the next months a process started in me. It is astonishing that this process had only now started since I was a pastor’s son. I started to spend more time with Jesus.”

I thought that this young person would need extra special attention. He was aware of his failure, regretted it and tried again, but he didn’t have long-lasting success in his own strength. At first, hardly a day would go by when he wasn’t in a fight, but gradually it got better.

After 6 months he said he thought it was the prayers that had brought him closer to God. In the meantime he had started praying for strength in the morning. His fits of rage and fights became less frequent.

Eleven months had now gone by since he came to our school and we could see even more improvements. But his anger, his swearing outbursts and his fists weren’t permanently under control.

It was only natural: he tried to win in his own strength and understanding, which worked sometimes and other times not at all. Our prayers had made some achievement, but his mindset still wasn’t right and the renewing power of the Spirit was missing.

What good does it do, when a person sees their mistakes, tries to control their temper and in the next moment fails again? Just at the time when I realized that I was at my wits’ end, I received the booklet mentioned above. It came at just the right time. Then I realized what we were missing. It was the power of the Holy Spirit. We hadn’t even asked Him to help us!

Since I had been touched by the message of Steps to Personal Revival I got up my courage to ask the boy if he had ever prayed for the Holy Spirit. No—he never had. Then I tried to awaken his interest in the booklet. I didn’t give it to him though. He should really want it. And very soon he did ask for the booklet.

Again in his own words: “In November 2012 my teacher gave me the booklet Steps to Personal Revival. I eagerly started to read it. At that time I wasn’t really acquainted with the work of the Holy Spirit.”

Within the first day he had already devoured almost two chapters and then he asked me how many times I had read it. He immediately started to read the chapters again and wanted to do exactly what the booklet suggested: reading it 6–10 times.
Since then a lot has changed. From December 2012 on there weren’t any more fist fights or scuffles—I could hardly believe it. The boys that he had beaten up every day became his friends and they get along harmoniously.

He has completely changed—he is polite and even obliging and peacefulness has taken over his aggressive nature. His classmates can confirm that God was at work. You can see the fruits every day. To God’s glory I want to mention that the boy decided to get baptized in June 2013. If that wasn’t the Holy Spirit...?!

I had always thought that I could manage a child and make him see reason. Patience, attention and lots of talks would do it, but it just didn’t work long-term. God had to intervene and taught me that it is His Spirit who makes the impossible possible.

Someday when this boy is in heaven, then I will know that God brought it about. When I was at the end of my wisdom and finally understood that I couldn’t guide him, then God started to radically work on him. It encourages me to see that there are no hopeless cases for God. C. P.

Prayer: Father in heaven, thank you for Jesus’ urgent invitation to ask for the Holy Spirit. I am sorry for the losses I have experienced because of a lack of the Holy Spirit. I need divine assistance so that Jesus can become greater in me. I need His help in every area of my life. Thank you that the Holy Spirit can change my character and can make me fit for God’s kingdom. I completely surrender myself to you with all that I am and have. Thank you for accepting me and giving me your blessings. Help me to grow in knowledge about the Holy Spirit. Amen.

WHAT IS THE CENTER OF OUR PROBLEMS?

Is there a spiritual cause behind our problems?
Is the cause a lack of the Holy Spirit?

WHY IS THERE A LACK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT?

The Bible’s answer is: “Yet you do not have because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask amiss (according to the carnal mind, Rom 8:5-7), that you may spend it on your pleasures.” (Jas 4:2,3 NKJV)

Our Lord Jesus invited us lovingly and insistently to ask for the Holy Spirit (Luke 11:9-13). We understand that we should do this continually. In the third chapter we will look at this more closely.

“They talk about Christ and about the Holy Spirit, yet receive no benefit. They do not surrender the soul to be guided and controlled by the divine agencies.” 13

We have been praying for a revival for some time. This is very valuable. Ellen G. White said: “It is this baptism of the Holy Spirit that the churches need today.” 14 “Why do we not hunger and thirst for the gift of the Spirit, since this is the means by which we are to receive power? Why do we not talk of it, pray for it, preach concerning it?” 15

It is good that we pray for revival, but we shouldn’t only pray for it, but rather—as Mark Finley says—it is “as well put into practice the biblical elements of revival.”\(^\text{16}\) May I invite you to take the necessary steps to experience personal revival? For many this will lead to a more powerful and fulfilled life.

To start with, we want to analyze the problem. We want to do this thoroughly; otherwise there is the danger that we will consider a change neither necessary nor important. After that we want to look at God’s solution, which offers us tremendous blessing and finally, how we can implement this and experience this.

Our lack of the Holy Spirit doesn’t mean that everything we have done and are doing is in vain. There were and are many very good plans and programs. The Lord has surely blessed our human efforts. But how much greater the results and how much better the situation could be, if we would actually live more closely with the Holy Spirit? Only God knows that.

It would have gone in this direction and would go in this direction in the future as Henry T. Blackaby expressed it:

“He (God) could do more in six months with a people that are devoted to Him, than we could do in sixty years without Him.”\(^\text{17}\)

It is the question of immediately going the right way under God’s leadership and thus having much greater effectiveness (efficiency). That is the case when we are filled with the Holy Spirit.

Example: Someone holds a sermon. He has finished speaking - maybe no-one, a few, many or all accept the message. If many or all accepted the message and put it into practice, then this is great effectiveness. This is something the Holy Spirit gives.

THREE GROUPS OF PEOPLE AND THEIR PERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS TO GOD

God’s Word differentiates between three groups of people in respect to their personal relationships with God. Within each of these groups there are many different shades depending on the parental training, character,

\(^{16}\) Mark A. Finley, Revive us again, p. 25

\(^{17}\) Henry T. Blackaby, Den Willen Gottes erkennen und tun (Experiencing God: Knowing and Doing the Will of God), (Kassel, 2002), S. 31 training of oneself, age, culture, education, etc. But even with all the differences there are only three basic attitudes towards God:

- No relationship—the Bible calls this the natural or worldly man.
- Full, real relationship—the Bible calls this person spiritual or spirit filled.
- Divided or feigned relationship—the Bible describes this as a person of the flesh or carnal.

The terms “natural”, “spiritual” and “carnal” in God’s Word are not evaluations in this case. They merely describe a person’s personal relationship to God.

These three groups are described in 1 Corinthians 2:14-16 and 1 Corinthians 3:1-4. Right now we only want to touch lightly on the subject of the natural man. He lives in the world. A quick glance at the two groups within the church will help us realize where the problem is mainly hidden. The most important thing to realize is to which group I myself belong. Thus our examination also helps our self-diagnosis. We want to take a look at our own lives and not the lives of others.

What is the criteria for designation to one group or the other? What determines which group I am currently in? We will see that in all three groups the designation occurs according to one’s personal relationship with the Holy Spirit.

THE NATURAL MAN

“But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.” (1 Cor 2:14 NKJV)

The natural man has absolutely no relationship with the Holy Spirit. He lives in the world and doesn’t inquire about God at all or only rarely inquires about God.

SPIRITUAL AND CARNAL ARE IN THE CHURCH

These two groups are mainly introduced in 1 Corinthians 2 and 3 as well as in Romans 8:1-17 and Galatians 4 and 6. We need to note that the criterion for these two groups is their relationship to the Holy Spirit. This is so, because God has stipulated that the Holy Spirit is our only connection to The heart must be open to the Spirit’s influence, or God’s blessing cannot be received.”

THE SPIRITUAL CHURCH MEMBER

Let’s read 1 Corinthians 2:15-16: “But he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is rightly judged by no one. For who has known the mind of the LORD that he may instruct Him? (Isa 40:13) But we have the mind of Christ.” (NKJV) “The person with the Spirit makes judgments about all things, but such a person is not subject to merely human judgments, for, Who has known the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.” (NIV)

The spiritual person is the true Christian. He is called “spiritual“, because he is filled with the Holy Spirit. Here too, the relationship with the Holy Spirit is the criteria needed for the designation of a spiritual person. He has a good and growing relationship with the Holy Spirit. Jesus is “in the center of his life”; we also say sometimes that Jesus reigns in our hearts. The spiritual person has committed himself essentially and completely to Jesus and as a general rule this is confirmed daily by surrendering himself to Jesus every morning with everything he is and has. In the message to the Laodicean church, this Christian is called “hot”, in the parable about the 10 virgins he is called “wise”. Romans 8:1-17 and Galatians 5 say even more about him. He experiences life “more abundantly” (John 10:10) or as Paul expresses it: “That you may be filled with all the fullness of God.” (Eph 3:19; Col 2:9)

THE CARNAL CHURCH MEMBER

A person can be a member for a short time or for many years and still be a carnal Christian. If to your surprise you find that you are a carnal Christian at the moment, then don’t be upset about it, but rather be glad, because you have the possibility of changing it immediately. You will experience great joy through a life with the Holy Spirit. I am convinced that most carnal Christians are unknowingly in this condition and have a desire to experience more in their faith. Their ignorance is often not even their fault.

18 Ellen G. White, Steps to Christ, 95.1 (egwwritings.org)
Consider: you will experience great joy through a life with Christ in your heart through the Holy Spirit. (Jesus in John 15:11: “and that your joy may be full.”) Through this change you will step by step experience life abundantly (Jesus in John 10:10—more on this later) and you will have well-founded hope for eternal life.

Prayer: Father in heaven, please make me willing to ask myself this question. If I am a carnal Christian, then please help me to realize this right away. Make me willing to be willing for everything you want. Please lead me to a happy Christian life—to the promised life in abundance and to eternal life. Please renew my heart. Thank you for answering my prayer. Amen.

Let’s read what the apostle Paul had to say to carnal church members in 1 Corinthians 3:1-4 (NKJV): “And I, brethren, could not speak to you as to spiritual people but as to carnal, as to babes in Christ. I fed you with milk and not with solid food; for until now you were not able to receive it, and even now you are still not able; for you are still carnal. For where there are envy, strife, and divisions among you, are you not carnal and behaving like mere men? For when one says, ‘I am of Paul,’ and another, ‘I am of Apollos,’ are you not carnal?”

Can you clearly see here that the criteria for the designation into this group is the personal relationship with the Holy Spirit? In these few verses the apostle Paul mentions four times that they are carnal. What does carnal mean? It means: this person lives from the power of the flesh, that is the normal strength and abilities a person has. Furthermore, it means that he isn’t filled with the Holy Spirit or isn’t sufficiently filled with the Holy Spirit.

Some people think this group only consists of people who live in blatant sin. But that is only one of the many shades within this group. I want to stress again that there are a lot of differences within each of these groups.

Paul addressed the carnal people as “dear brothers”. This shows that he was dealing with church members. Paul couldn’t speak to them “as to spiritual people”. That means that: They weren’t filled with the Holy Spirit or weren’t sufficiently filled with the Holy Spirit. He had to speak to them “as babes in Christ”. This shows that they haven’t grown in faith as they should have. A person can have great biblical knowledge and still not grow spiritually. Spiritual growth has to do with our complete dedication to Jesus and a constant life in the Holy Spirit.

Many carnal Christians feel dissatisfaction, disappointment, purposelessness or are under constant stress in their spiritual life.

Other carnal church members have gotten used to this condition or are satisfied with this condition. They might say: “We are just sinners! We can’t do anything about it!”

Again other carnal Christians might be enthusiastic. They are glad that they know Biblical truth. Carnal church members can be very active and even have leading positions in the local church or even in the church administration. They may even do a lot for God.

Matt 7:22-23 (NKJV): “Many will say to Me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?’ And then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice iniquity!’”

Where did the problem lie? Jesus said that He didn’t know them. They didn’t have a real relationship with Christ, but rather only a feigned relationship. Either there hadn’t been a real commitment or it hadn’t been maintained. Jesus didn’t live in their hearts through the Holy Spirit. Thus they had no personal relationship with Christ. “So there may be an apparent connection with Christ …”¹⁹ When is Christ NOT in us? I have read some serious words about this. Before I mention them, I want to point out that we can be free from the following things if we live a life with the Holy Spirit:

“A spirit contrary to the spirit of Christ would deny Him, whatever the profession. Men may deny Christ by evilspeaking, by foolish talking, by words that are untruthful or unkind. They may deny Him by shunning life’s burdens, by the pursuit of sinful pleasure. They may deny Him by conforming to the world, by uncourteous behavior, by the love of their own opinions, by justifying self, by cherishing doubt, borrowing trouble, and dwelling in darkness. In all these ways they declare that Christ is not in them.”²⁰

This can quickly change by the grace of God. We will come back to this in the third and fifth section.

¹⁹ Ellen G. White, The Desire of Ages (1898), p. 676
WHY IS SURRENDERING OUR LIVES AND MAKING A COMMITMENT TO GOD IMPORTANT?

God’s Word says: “I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service.” (Rom 12:1 NKJV)

“God desires to heal us, to set us free [from the tyranny of our ego and the bondage of sin]. But since this requires an entire transformation, a renewing of our whole nature, we must yield ourselves wholly to Him.”

Our ego is offended, jealous, annoyed, resentful, etc. God wants to free us of these attitudes.

“He [God] invites us to give ourselves to Him, that He may work His will in us. It remains for us to choose whether we will be set free from the bondage of sin, to share the glorious liberty of the sons of God.”

God answers our basic commitment with rebirth (John 3:1-21). After that it has to do with staying surrendered (John 15:1-17). We’ll talk about this more in the third section.

Morris Venden says about surrendering our lives to God: “There is no such thing as a partial surrender. It’s no more possible to be partially surrendered than it is possible to be a little bit pregnant. Either you are or you aren’t. There is no middle ground.”

Ellen White said the following about daily surrender: “Only those who will become co-workers with Christ, only those who will say, Lord, all I have and all I am is Thine, will be acknowledged as sons and daughters of God.”

So a person can be in the church and still be lost. How tragic! (Theparable about the 10 virgins and the message to the Laodicea church also illustrate this.)

WHY IS CARNAL CHRISTIANITY SO DIFFICULT TO IDENTIFY?

Since a carnal person’s life is filled with “religion”, he often doesn’t realize that he is missing something vital: an intimate and saving relationship with God. If Christ isn’t allowed to govern our whole life, then He is standing in front of the door knocking (Rev 3:20). And He says: If this doesn’t change, then I will spit you out.
I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service.

And something else plays a part. Through our strong doctrinal foundation, which is based on the Bible, we have strong convictions. (At the same time we still want to stay open to further insights.) We have the certainty that we believe the truth; that thrills us. We have a lot of good knowledge. We say the right things. That is what makes it so difficult to identify the carnal problem. Doesn’t it play a role if I have ever really lived with the Holy Spirit? If not, then can I even notice the difference?

A pastor wrote: “I just received a call from a sister who is taking part in our 40 Days prayer time. (Particulars about the 40 Days prayer time are in chapter 5.) She said that it has changed her life. She had wondered her whole life what was missing in her spiritual life and now she knew—the Holy Spirit. I wish you could have heard her testimony. She said that she noticed for the first time in her life that she has a relationship with God. … Others have also already noticed the change in her life.”

We can see that a person can notice that something is missing, but doesn’t know what. Many have a desire for more and don’t know what it is or how to get it.

I am thankful that 1 Corinthians 3:1-4 uses the word “still” three times. “For you are still carnal.” This shows us that it is possible for the carnal person to become spiritual. No one has to remain carnal. As long as a person takes time for matters of faith he has a good chance to realize this and change it. We will talk later about how you can become spiritual.

Another aspect to consider is envy and strife or as the NIV says: “There is jealousy and quarreling among you.” This behavior proves to Paul that the carnal church members are not living through God’s Spirit, but rather acting carnally—just like other people. They can act just like natural people; albeit in religious packaging. Does this mean that tensions in the church stem mainly from carnal-minded church members? (See Jude v. 19) In Jesus’ day, didn’t the Pharisees and Sadducees compete with one other? This means that already back then there were tensions between the conservatives and the liberals/progressives. One group was very particular and the other interpreted things more loosely. But both were convinced that they had the correct Bible interpretation and attitude. But Jesus showed us that both groups were carnal, meaning: not filled with the Holy Spirit. The same thing is possible today—conservative Christians can also be carnal Christians.

25 Email an H. Haubeil—received on February 15, 2012

Unfortunately, people today often look through the glasses of “conservative or liberal/progressive”. The advantage is that the observer comes off well. However, with the biblical classification of “carnal or spiritual” we are challenged to take a spiritual inventory. We should do this for our own good. Consider what God clearly tells us in Galatians 6:7,8 NKJV: “... whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. For he who sows to his flesh will of the flesh reap corruption, but he who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit reap everlasting life.”

The carnal person wants to follow Jesus and please Him, but he hasn’t surrendered his whole life to Jesus or if he has, then he has backslidden somehow. (Gal 3:3; Rev 2:4,5) That means that he, maybe unconsciously, wants to live according to God’s will and his own wishes simultaneously. But that doesn’t work. Ultimately he is carrying his own life in his hands. As the saying goes, there are two souls dwelling in his breast. Can God send the Holy Spirit in such a case? James 4:3 NKJV gives this answer: “You ask and do not receive, because you ask amiss.” I have come to the conclusion that it means asking with a carnal attitude. Wouldn’t an answer to such a request only boost the ego? Consequently, this church member is living through normal human powers and abilities. In Revelation 3:16 this is called “lukewarm” and in Matt 25 “foolish”.

WHY DOES JESUS CALL THE CARNAL CHURCH MEMBERS LUKEWARM?

Why is it that so many Christians are lacking an experience with the Holy Spirit? In order to answer this question, we will first have to take a look at the Laodicea phenomenon. Why did Jesus call the believers in the Laodicea church lukewarm? He gave us a clear indicator: “Behold, I stand at the door and knock.” (Rev 3:20) Jesus wasn’t the center of the lives of the believers, but rather outside. He was standing outside in front of the door. Why didn’t He go in? Because He hadn’t been invited. He doesn’t force His way in, because He respects our free will decision.

Why do believers leave Jesus outside in front of the door? There are different causes and reasons for this. Some only move on a purely intellectual and cognitive plane in their spiritual lives, like the scribe Nicodemus, and don’t understand what the Christian life is all about. (Compare with John 3:1-10). For others the “price” of discipleship is too high, they have to give up too much, like the “rich young ruler”. (Compare with Matt 19:16-24) To follow Jesus requires self-denial and the willingness to change one’s life (compare with Matt 16:24,25) and completely surrender oneself to God (Rom 12:1). Leaving Jesus outside can be caused by pure negligence—insufficient time in personal fellowship with Jesus.

I repeat: the reason for the lukewarmness in Revelation 3:20 is: “Behold, I stand at the door.” Jesus is not in the center of their lives, but rather outside or on the sidelines. So the lukewarmness relates to the personal relationship with Christ. In other areas the person concerned definitely doesn’t have to be lukewarm.

An example: A man can invest a lot in his vocation and at the same time neglect his wife. He is committed to his job, but lukewarm in his marriage relationship. A person can even be a committed church member, a diligent church leader or pastor or president and still be lukewarm in his relationship with Christ. The person is so dedicated to accomplishing a lot of tasks, that he neglects his personal relationship with Christ. This is the lukewarmness that Jesus wants removed. It is tragic that a person can be so busy with God’s work (in the church and mission work) that He neglects the Lord of the work.

THE PARABLE OF THE TEN VIRGINS

What does Jesus’ parable of the ten virgins show us in respect to the spiritual and carnal church members?

- All 10 were virgins
- All had pure biblical beliefs
- All had lamps
- All had the Bible
- All of them went to meet the bridegroom
- All of them looked forward to the 2nd coming
All of them prepared their lamps and all of the lamps were burning; but burning lamps need oil. Energy was used. After a short time five of them noticed that their lamps were going out. The lamps of the foolish virgins that only burned for a short time show us that they did have something from the Holy Spirit. But it wasn’t enough. There was too little oil. That was the only difference.

When the five came asking to be let in, Jesus answered: “I do not know you.” They were too late in attending to the oil, the Holy Spirit. The door remained closed.

Jesus’ statement shows us that our personal relationship with Him has something to do with the Holy Spirit. Whoever doesn’t let himself be led by the Holy Spirit won’t be acknowledged by Jesus. In Romans 8:8,9 it says: “Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. … if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not His.”

Actually, we only have a real personal relationship with Jesus through the Holy Spirit. 1 John 3:24 says: “And by this we know that He [Jesus] abides in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us.” This means that the assurance I have that I am filled with the Holy Spirit is at the same time the assurance that I am in Jesus and He is in me.

This is exactly the experience a sister had, who took part in the 40 Days prayer time. Through the presence of the Holy Spirit in her life she experienced her relationship with God in a completely different way and others noticed the change in her life. A sister from southern Germany wrote the following after she had studied this booklet: “Together the book ‘40 Days—Prayers and Devotions to Prepare for the Second Coming’ by Dennis Smith and this booklet have become a great and long-awaited blessing in my life. Just like many other church members and a sister from our church have experienced, something was always missing in our faith experience and now we have the privilege of experiencing how Jesus has entered our lives. and has begun to change us. He is still working on us and step by step is drawing us closer to Him.”

A brother wrote the following: The booklet Steps to Personal Revival deeply touched me. The chapter on the ten virgins and especially on Romans 8:9b: ‘Now if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not His’ greatly shocked me. Suddenly, I wasn’t sure if I had the Holy Spirit and if He was working in me, because I am painfully missing the corresponding “fruits” in my life. This Sabbath afternoon I finished reading the booklet and an infinitely deep sadness overwhelmed me. Then I read the prayer on page 110 and a deep desire rose in me to receive the Holy Spirit, that my heart would be changed and that God the Father would change me according to His will. … Thank you for the booklet and the words, which deeply moved me.” A. P.

The greatest tragedy for the carnal Christian is that he won’t receive eternal life if his condition doesn’t change. “Now if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not His.” (Rom 8:9b)

Now to summarize: The main difference between the spiritual and the carnal church member has to do with the Holy Spirit. The spiritual Christian is filled with the Holy Spirit. The carnal Christian isn’t or isn’t sufficiently filled with the Holy Spirit.

Should you realize that you are a carnal Christian, then don’t be angry. God is offering you a remedy: the Holy Spirit.

In some circles, certain gifts of the Holy Spirit are overemphasized; on the other hand, in other circles, the Holy Spirit is neglected. May our dear Lord help us to follow his Holy Word, and neither go to one extreme or the other.

STRIKING WORDS

Like a glass of cold water
The book Steps to Personal Revival is like a glass of cold water. If a man will drink, it will refresh him. If you pour that cold water on a sleepy person, it works like an electric shock. Thanks writer, thanks bearer for sending our church this book. Personally I got many blessings from this book.

The Holy Spirit on the “driver’s seat” avoids “accidents”
I have read the Steps to Personal Revival book four times and will be reading it at least twice more. It was a blessing. I preached the last Sabbath (I am a layman). I now have a greater inner freedom to read in the Bible and the EGW-books. I have a different attitude now. I want the Holy Ghost to sit in the driver’s seat. If I had done that years ago, how many “accidents” would I have avoided!

What is the main problem with being a carnal Christian?

COMPARISON: THE EARLY CHURCH AND THE CHURCH IN THE END TIMES

When we compare the early church with the present day church, we observe that the early church must have been predominantly made up of spiritual people. The book of Acts shows that this was the reason for their quick and positive development. They had no other aid. But they had the Holy Spirit. We have excellent aids in abundance. But we have a deficiency of the Holy Spirit.

Remember what A. W. Tozer said: “If the Holy Spirit were taken away from our church today, 95% of what we do would continue and no one would notice the difference. If the Holy Spirit had been withdrawn from the early church, then 95% (this means almost everything) of what they were doing would have stopped and everyone would have noticed the difference.”

HAVE WE LEARNED TO GET ALONG WITHOUT THE HOLY SPIRIT? DOES THE CHURCH TODAY CONSIST PRIMARILY OF CARNAL CHRISTIANS?

As a consequence, are we often powerless and to a large extent without victories in spiritual matters? Does a carnal attitude have something to do with the fact that we only have weak church growth in many places? Do many of the serious problems in many areas come from carnal attitudes? We will notice more and more that personally and collectively our central problem is the lack of the Holy Spirit. In the personal area we can quickly change this with God’s help.

The following statement made for ministers naturally applies to everyone. Johannes Mager says: “Paul differentiates between spiritual and carnal Christians, between those who are filled with the Holy Spirit and those who have no room for the Holy Spirit in their lives: baptized with the Holy Spirit, but not filled with the Holy Spirit.

For a minister this means that: I can have sound theological training, be well-versed in the basic biblical languages and to be able to skillfully practice exegesis; I can have received the great biblical truths intellectually and understood them and be confident in the dogmatic theology of different centuries; I can have a sound grasp of homiletics and preach relevant and realistic sermons - yet despite all my knowledge and talents, I can be devoid of the Holy Spirit. Books, education, good technical equipment, even charisma form a substitute for the missing Spirit-filled life.

Preaching, praying publically, organizing church life, preparing evangelistic programs, giving pastoral counseling—these all can be learned and also put into practice without the Holy Spirit. Ellen G. White described this dangerous possibility as follows: “The reason why there is so little of the Spirit of God manifested is that ministers learn to do without it.” 28 As important as a basic education and systematic ongoing training is for a preacher, it is even more important for him that he let himself constantly be refilled by the Holy Spirit. 29

To summarize: Being carnal means living by normal human powers and abilities without the Holy Spirit or an insufficient quantity of the Holy Spirit.

WHAT IS THE MAIN OBSTACLE IN CARNAL CHRISTIANITY?

The great ethics of the Bible—loving your enemy, forgiving people for everything, overcoming sin, etc.—can only be achieved by the power of the Holy Spirit, not with human effort. This shows us that the main problem in carnal Christianity is that it is a life depending solely in human strength. We can’t do God’s will in our own strength. Let’s read a few Bible verses on this topic:

Isaiah 64:6 NKJV: “And all our righteousness are like filthy rags.”

28 Ellen G. White, Testimonies for the Church, vol. 1, (1868), p. 383.1
29 Johannes Mager, Auf den Spuren des Heiligen Geistes (Following the Steps of the Holy Spirit), (Lüneberg, 1999), S. 102-103. Johannes Mager was a pastor, evangelist and a professor of systematic theology for many years. He worked last as secretary of the ministerial department of the Euro-African Division (now: Inter-European Division) in Bern, Switzerland.
Jeremiah 13:23 NKJV: “Can the Ethiopian change his skin or the leopard its spots? Then may you also do good who are accustomed to do evil.”

Ezekiel 36:26-27 NKJV: “I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you … I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My judgments and do them.”

Romans 8:7 NKJV: “Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can be.” And NIV: “The mind governed by the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God’s law, nor can it do so.”

Ellen White said very clearly and accurately: “He who is trying to reach heaven by his own works in keeping the law, is attempting an impossibility. Man cannot be saved without obedience, but his works should not be of himself; Christ should work in him to will and to do of his good pleasure.”

I think these references show sufficiently that we are not capable of doing God’s will without the Holy Spirit. Our main concern is that we always need to make a decision for God’s will and that God gives us the strength to implement it. This understanding of the doctrine of righteousness by faith is extremely important and liberating. However, we can’t discuss it in detail here.

WHAT COULD HAPPEN WHEN SOMEONE TRIES TO DO SOMETHING THAT EXCEEDS THEIR STRENGTH?

What happens when I realize: I can’t do it! I’ve failed again! These experiences are probably accompanied by disappointment.

I think this problem is much more prominent in the younger generation than in the older one. Older people are used to a stronger sense of duty, obedience in the family, school and business. Thus they aren’t as easily annoyed by a disappointment as younger people are. But the problem is equally present in young and old. The younger person notices it more distinctly. Traveling the path of faith in their own strength is the foremost problem of every carnal Christian, whether he knows it or not.

How do we try to solve this problem? One person may pray more intensely for God’s help and decide to try harder. Another person may think that we shouldn’t be so narrow-minded. Now he starts to take things more casually and feels freer. Still another completely abandons his faith and may even feel better. The only problem is that these apparent solutions are false solutions, because the consequences will come sooner or later. The correct way is to take God’s laws seriously, because they were given in love and are for our own good. However, we need God’s strength for this. The right way is to live in the power of the Holy Spirit with increasing joy, motivation, strength, fruitfulness and victory.

30 Ellen G. White, Review and Herald, July 1, 1890

THE CENTRAL PROBLEM

I think we have recognized that this mostly has to do with carnal Christianity. Isn’t it becoming clearer and clearer why Jesus doesn’t want any lukewarm followers? They don’t have life in abundance like God wants to give us and they are a bad example even though most of them don’t even know it. The problem is much more serious than we think. “Half-hearted Christians are worse than infidels; for their deceptive words and noncommittal position lead many astray.”

In the book Christ our Righteousness by Arthur G. Daniells we read the following: “But formalism is most deceptive and ruinous. It is the hidden, unsuspected rock upon which, through the centuries, the church has so often been well-nigh wrecked. Paul warns us that a ‘form of godliness’, without the power of God will be one of the perils of the last days, and admonishes us to turn away from the deceptive, bewitching thing.”

POSSIBLE FACTORS LEADING TO CARNAL CHRISTIANITY

The following factors or reasons are things which can lead to carnal Christianity:

1. Ignorance—We haven’t devoted ourselves enough to the topic of “life with the Holy Spirit” or we haven’t found the key for putting it into practice.

2. Unbelief or Small of Faith—The prerequisite for being filled with the Holy Spirit is the complete surrender of one’s life to Jesus Christ. Failing to surrender completely could happen because of ignorance, or maybe because we are afraid that the Lord will lead us differently than what we want. This means that we don’t trust God’s love and wisdom enough.

32 Arthur G. Daniells, Christ our Righteousness, p. 30, Christus unsere Gerechtigkeit (Hamburg 1962), S.20
3. Erroneous Notions—A person can think they are filled with the Holy Spirit, even though they aren’t in reality or not sufficiently. This seems to be the most frequent problem.

4. Being too Busy—People are so overburdened that they think they don’t have any or enough time to maintain a relationship with Christ. Or they take the time, but don’t make any progress in connecting with God.

5. Hidden Sins—Not confessing and repenting, possibly also missing restitution, can be like a short-circuit, meaning there is no connection with God’s power.

6. Fear of people—A person can be so filled with the culture of the day that they don’t have the courage to live out the principles of faith.

7. Act mostly according to their feelings - God’s word says: “The righteous live by faith.” Do I make decisions by trusting God or according to my feelings? This statement from Roger Morneau really impressed me: “The spirits would encourage people to listen to their feelings instead of the word of Christ and His prophets. In no surer way could the spirits obtain control of people’s lives without the individuals realizing what was happening.”

WHY SHOULD I ASK FOR THE HOLY SPIRIT?

AFTER ALL, I RECEIVED HIM AT MY BAPTISM. IS THERE A PROBLEM HERE?

On the one hand, the Holy Spirit was given to us in order to stay in us. On the other hand, we should continually ask by faith for the Holy Spirit. How do we solve this apparent contradiction?

On the one hand:

Jesus said in John 14:17 NKJV: “For He [the Holy Spirit] dwells with you and will be in you.” Acts 2:38 NKJV says: “Repent, and let every one of you be baptized … and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.”

On the other hand:

When Jesus taught about prayer, He said in Luke 11:9-13 (NKJV): “… ask, and it will be given to you; … how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!” Ephesians 5:18 says: “… be filled with the Spirit.” In both cases in the original Greek text, it is a continual request.

Solution:
Ellen G. White says: “Yet the operations of the Spirit are always in harmony with the written word. As in the natural, so in the spiritual world. The natural life is preserved moment by moment by divine power; yet it is not sustained by a direct miracle, but through the use of blessings placed within our reach. So the spiritual life is sustained by the use of those means that Providence has supplied. If the follower of Christ would grow up ‘unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ’ (Eph 4:13), he must eat of the bread of life and drink of the water of salvation. He must watch and pray and work, in all things giving heed to the instructions of God in His word.”

We received life at our birth. In order to sustain this life we have to eat, drink, exercise, etc. It is exactly the same in our spiritual life. We have the Holy Spirit through our baptism by water and the Spirit (we were ‘born again’) so that this spiritual life remains in us our whole life. In order to sustain this spiritual life it is necessary to use the spiritual means that God provided: the Holy Spirit, God’s Word, prayer, our testimony, etc.

Jesus said in John 15:4: “Abide in me, and I in you.” Ellen G. White says concerning this: “Abiding in Christ means a constant receiving of His Spirit, a life of unreserved surrender to His service.”

That is why we need to daily ask for the Holy Spirit by faith and surrender ourselves to the Lord every morning with everything we have and are.

WHERE DO I STAND?

Now the most important thing is to discern which group I am in. Where do I stand?

When my dear mother was 20 she answered a man’s question by saying that she wasn’t interested in faith. He then replied: And if you died in the night? This comment hit her hard. But it had a very positive effect. It led her to make a decision for Jesus and His church. Maybe this question will help you too:

35 Ellen G. White, The Desire of Ages (1898), p. 676.2
Suppose … you died today …! (heart attack? accident?)
Do you have the assurance of eternal life with Jesus Christ?
Don’t remain uncertain.

OUR HAPPINESS DEPENDS ON THIS

I am very alarmed as I have begun to understand the great magnitude of this problem. I have thought and prayed about whether I should really add this paragraph or not. I decided to take the chance since it is a matter of happiness in life now and eternal life and it also especially has an influence on our marriages and families as well as our churches and our occupations. I don’t know who it applies to. But I want to be of help to the persons concerned, since I have been helped as well. It is crucial that everyone who is carnal realizes this, or he will not be able to ask for God’s help to change. God in His love wants to richly bless us through an intimate relationship with Jesus Christ through the Holy Spirit. As a result great loss can be avoided and immeasurable blessing can be experienced. And the wonderful thing is that we can quickly remedy the situation with God’s help. (In more detail in chapters 3 and 5)

The problem of carnal Christianity is described in the Bible in different ways. Individual groups and the people in the groups can have very different focal points, but the central problem is the same. The different descriptions are:

- “in the flesh or carnal”—Rom 8:1-17; 1 Cor 3:1-4, Gal 5:16-21 and other texts
- “foolish”—the parable of the ten virgins—Matt. 25:1-13
  “The state of the Church represented by the foolish virgins, is also spoken of as the Laodicean state.”
- “lukewarm”—the letter to Laodicea—Rev 3:14-21
  “I wish you were cold or hot.” (Rev 3:15) Isn’t it amazing? Jesus prefers cold to lukewarm. What is His reason for this? “Halfhearted Christians are worse than infidels; for their deceptive words and noncommittal position lead many astray. The infidel shows his colors. The lukewarm Christian deceives both parties. He is neither a good worldling nor a good Christian. Satan uses him to do a work that no one else can do.”

---

37 Ellen G. White, Letter 44, 1903, quoted in the Seventh Day Adventist Bible Commentary, vol. 7, p. 963 on Rev 3:15,16 not “born again” or hasn’t remained in this condition—John 3:1-21
“The new birth is a rare experience in this age of the world. This is the reason why there are so many perplexities in the churches. Many, so many, who assume the name of Christ are unsanctified and unholy. They have been baptized, but they were buried alive. Self did not die, and therefore they did not rise to newness of life in Christ.” 38

a form of godliness—“Having a form of godliness but denying its power.”
(2 Tim 3:5) Arthur G. Daniells says the following about this: “… But formalism is something extremely deceptive and destructive. It is the hidden, unexpected cliff, which the church has threatened to shatter on many times throughout the centuries. Paul warned us that this ‘form of Godliness’ (2 Tim 3:5) without God’s power [without being filled by the Holy Spirit] would be one of the dangers of the last days and admonishes us not to be taken in by this comfortable, self-deceiving attitude.” 39

And there are also some shocking statements in Ellen White’s writings:

Very, very few

“In my dream a sentinel stood at the door of an important building, and asked every one who came for entrance, ‘Have ye received the Holy Spirit?’ A measuring-line was in his hand, and only very, very few were admitted into the building.” 40

Not one in twenty are ready

“It is a solemn statement that I make to the church, that not one in twenty whose names are registered upon the church books are prepared to close their earthly history, and would be as verily without God and without hope in the world as the common sinner.” 41

Why are we so sleepy?

“Why are the soldiers of Christ so sleepy and indifferent? Because they have so little real connection with Christ; because they are so destitute of His Spirit.” 42

41 Ellen G. White, Christian Service (1925), p. 41.1
42 Ellen G. White, The Great Controversy (1911), p. 507.3
A great danger

“I will not here dwell upon the shortness and uncertainty of life; but there is a terrible danger—a danger not sufficiently understood—in delaying to yield to the pleading voice of God’s Holy Spirit, in choosing to live in sin; for such this delay really is.”

What is at the core of sin? “Because they do not believe in Me.” (John 16:9) The sign that we really believe and trust Jesus is that we completely surrender ourselves to Him. It has to do with our complete surrender; our willingness to follow Him in everything.

I want to say it again: I took the chance of adding this very serious paragraph because it has to do with our personal happiness now and in eternity. It is also a hugely important factor in how we influence others, especially in our marriages, families, communities and churches.

QUESTIONS AND MORE QUESTIONS

The crucial question is: Are you filled with the Holy Spirit or not? When is a person filled with the Holy Spirit? What are the necessary prerequisites? What are the positive results of a life with the Holy Spirit? What happens when you erroneously think you are filled with the Holy Spirit?

BE THANKFUL FOR THE SIGNALS

Thank the Lord that we are devoting ourselves more to the topic of revival. I think that our great and marvelous God has important reasons for presently giving us impulses by the Holy Spirit for a revival. Could these be the reasons?

- He wants to relieve our deficiency and lead us out of our Laodicea-like state.
- He wants to prepare us for the soon second coming of Jesus and the special time just before He comes.
- He wants to bring about the great closing revival (Rev 18:1,2) in the world through those “who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ” (Rev 12:17 NKJV) and have “the faith of Jesus” (Rev 12:17 NKJV).

Let us also thank God that every carnal Christian can quickly become a spiritual Christian. And that everyone who lives in the Holy Spirit can grow to the fullness of Christ. This is now our next job, but now, here is another experience to end this chapter:

NEW MOTIVATION AND INNER JOY

“A sister in the church gave me the booklet Steps to Personal Revival. I was overwhelmed by the contents of the booklet. I had long been searching for something like this and had finally found it. I then started to organize my spiritual life and only then did I realize that I had to do something: I surrendered myself completely to Jesus. From then on the Lord woke me up very early and gave me time for my personal devotions. Every day I studied a chapter in the 40 Days book. I noticed clearly that my relationship with Jesus grew greater. It became deeper and more intimate. The Holy Spirit was working on me. After the 40 Days book, I studied book two of the 40 Days. Since then I have studied each of these books four times. I can’t do anything but daily ask for fellowship with God. The results are awesome, because my new motivation and inner joy can’t remain unnoticed. During this time I have had the privilege of having a lot of experiences with God. I also looked for opportunities to share my experience. A close relationship with Jesus makes many things become unimportant and needless cares are solved. I hope and pray that many people will have this experience that I have been privileged to have.” H. S.
The Holy Spirit: The highest of all gifts
He [Jesus] rejoiced because of the abundant help He had provided for His church. The Holy Spirit was the highest of all gifts that He could solicit from His Father for the exaltation of His people. Ellen G. White, Desire of Ages, p. 671.2

Even doubters have no arguments
I received Steps to personal Revival in Swedish a few weeks ago and I love it! I’m reading it for the third time. I know, without a doubt, that this book was really led by the Holy Spirit. Since the 1960s, such a book has been missing in Sweden. At that time, a Finnish pastor called Arazola, wrote something similar, but it wasn’t as clear. This book makes it so clear and convincing that even one ‘Doubter’ has no arguments. T.J. EE100319 from Sweden, #93

My life has changed completely
My wife and I have studied your e-book Steps to Personal Revival. What a Divine Revelation and Inspiration! We have been guided, blessed and inspired. My life has completely changed. Thank you. We want our families and our community here in South Africa to receive printed copies. Most of them have no access to the Internet and e-books. How should we go about that? Enthusiasm about Change
I’m excited about the changes that have and are occuring in my life through the booklet Steps to Personal Revival. I am very grateful for the much greater work that the Holy Spirit is having in my life. Many ways of witnessing have been opened by the Holy Spirit. Old habits have far less appeal.—I have used the basic messages form Dwight’s sermons on the Holy Spirit for my presentations and am seeing lives changed by the work of the Holy Spirit as people recommit their lives to Jesus.   1. that God fills every one of us with His Holy Spirit.
  2. for God’s rich blessing on our walk with Him.
  3. for constant guidance from the Holy Spirit.
What is God’s solution to our problems?

How can we grow to be happy and strong Christians?

Jesus said: “Remain joined to me, and I will remain joined to you.” (John 15:4 NIRV) “Abiding in Christ means a constant receiving of His Spirit, a life of unreserved surrender to His service.”

This two-part divine solution for our central problem is at the same time the way to a happy Christian life. Why? Jesus commented on these words: “These things I have spoken to you, that My Joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be full.” (John 15:11 NKJV) Through these two steps (continually receiving the Holy Spirit and complete surrender to His service) Christ lives in us and this is the way to perfect happiness. Colossians 1:27 speaks about the riches of the glory: Christ in you. Isn’t it remarkable that Jesus embedded this parable of the vine in between the promise for the Holy Spirit in John 14 and the work of the Holy Spirit in John 16?

The crucial point is that we (as a rule) daily surrender ourselves to God including everything we are and have and that we also daily ask and receive by faith the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

44 Ellen G. White, The Desire of Ages (1898), p. 676.2
WHY IS IT NECESSARY TO SURRENDER OURSELVES TO JESUS DAILY?

Jesus said in Luke 9:23: “If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me.”

Jesus said that discipleship is a daily matter. To deny oneself means giving Jesus the control over my life. Carrying a cross doesn’t mean that we will have difficulties every day. Here it means: to daily deny our egos and to submit gladly and willingly to Jesus - just as Paul said about himself: “I die daily.” When someone carried a cross in Jesus’ day, then he had been sentenced to death and was going to the place of execution. So it also has to do with accepting difficulties, which arise from following Jesus.

We received our physical life at birth. In order to maintain our life, strength and health we normally eat every day. We received our spiritual life when we were born again. In order to keep our spiritual life strong and healthy it is also necessary to take care of the inner person daily. If this doesn’t take place in our physical life as well as in our spiritual life, then we will become weak, sick or even die. We can neither eat meals ahead as reserve meals nor can we stockpile the Holy Spirit.

In the book The Acts of the Apostles there is valuable advice on this: “As in the natural, so in the spiritual world. The natural life is preserved moment by moment by divine power; yet it is not sustained by a direct miracle, but through the use of blessings placed within our reach. So the spiritual life is sustained by the use of those means that Providence has supplied.”

This comment in the book The Desire of Ages really impressed me: “We are to follow Christ day by day. God does not bestow help for tomorrow.”

Ellen White said: “To follow Jesus requires wholehearted conversion at the start, and a repetition of this conversion every day.” “However complete may have been our consecration at conversion, it will avail us nothing unless it be renewed daily ...” “Consecrate yourself to God in the morning; make this your very first work. Let your prayer be, “Take me, O Lord, as wholly Thine. I lay all my plans at Thy feet. Use me today in Thy service. Abide with me, and let all my work be wrought in Thee.” This is a daily matter. Each morning consecrate yourself to God for that day. Surrender all your plans to Him, to be carried out or given up as His providence shall indicate. Thus, day by day, you should be giving your life into the hands of God, and thus your life will be molded more and more after the life of Christ.”

48 Ellen G. White, Review and Herald, Jan. 6, 1885

Morris Venden said: “If you haven’t discovered the necessity of daily conversion, it can be a major breakthrough in your life. Thoughts From The Mount of Blessing, page 101, makes this promise: ‘If you will seek the Lord and be converted every day...all your murmurings will be stilled, all your difficulties will be moved, all the perplexing problems that now confront you will be solved.’”

Remaining with Jesus through a daily renewal of our surrender is just as important as it was when we first came to Him.

Morris Venden says further: “The abiding daily relationship with God leads to abiding surrender, moment-by-moment dependence on Him.”

We may be certain that: when we consciously surrender ourselves to Jesus every morning, then we are doing what He wishes us to do, because He said: “Come to me …” (Matt 11:28 NKJV) and: “… the one who comes to Me I will by no means cast out.” (John 6:37 NKJV)

“The Lord is willing to do great things for us. We shall not gain the victory through numbers, but through the full surrender of the soul to Jesus. We are to go forward in His strength, trusting in the mighty God of Israel …”

The great influence that God can exert through us when we completely surrender ourselves to Him is described by John Wesley as follows: “God can do more with one man, who has committed himself 100 % to God, than He can with a whole army of men, who have only committed themselves 99 % to God.”

Ellen White wrote: “Only those who will become co-workers with Christ, only those who will say, Lord, all I have and all I am is Thine, will be acknowledged as sons and daughters of God.” “All who consecrate soul, body, and spirit to God will be constantly receiving a new endowment of physical and mental power... The Holy Spirit puts forth its highest energies to work in heart and mind. The grace of God enlarges and multiplies their faculties, and every perfection of the divine nature comes to their assistance in the work of saving souls … And in their human weakness they are enabled to do the deeds of Omnipotence.”

WHY SHOULD A PERSON DAILY ASK FOR A NEW BAPTISM OF THE HOLY SPIRIT?

The request to be filled with the Holy Spirit is a request to Jesus to, ‘Stay by me.’ Because He lives in me through the Holy Spirit. But why daily?

Ellen G. White said in The Acts of the Apostles: “To the consecrated worker there is wonderful consolation in the knowledge that even Christ during His life on earth sought His Father daily for fresh supplies of needed grace … His own example is an assurance that earnest, persevering supplication to God in faith—faith that leads to entire dependence upon God, and unreserved consecration to His work—will avail to bring men the Holy Spirit’s aid in the battle against sin.”

If this was a daily necessity for Jesus, then how much more important it is for us. In 2 Cor 4:16 NKJV there is an important statement: “…yet the inward man is being renewed day by day.”

Our inward man needs daily care. In what way does this daily renewal take place? According to Eph 3:16,17,19 NKJV it happens through the Holy Spirit: “That He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might through His Spirit in the inner man, that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love … that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.”

Therefore:
- As a rule it is necessary to pray daily for a renewal of the Holy Spirit.
- As a result Christ lives in us.
- He gives us power according to the riches of His glory for our inner man. The power of God is a supernatural power, but we can not feel it. The Creator can work with extremely minimal forces (e.g. the electrical currents in our bodies. We can not feel it, but if they are not there, we are dead)
- Thus God’s love is put into our hearts.

And it is the way to a life “with all the fullness of God”. (see John 10:10; Col. 2:10)

Another important text is found in Ephesians 5:18 NKJV: “… be filled with the Spirit.” Take note that this is more than just advice. It is a divine command. Our God expects us to want to live with the Holy Spirit. The Greek experts say that this text says more precisely—and I am quoting Johannes Mager: “Let yourselves be consistently and continually filled anew with the Spirit.” 57

Our lesson study guide says: “Baptism with the Holy Spirit means to be completely under the influence of the Holy Spirit - to be completely ‘filled’ by Him. This isn’t a one-time experience, but rather something that has to be continually repeated, as Paul illustrates in Ephesians 5:18 with the tense of the Greek verb ‘filled.’” 58

The apostle Paul wrote this in Ephesians chapter 5, even though he wrote the following in chapter 1:13: “… in whom also, having believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise.” The Ephesians had evidently already received the Holy Spirit. Nevertheless, it was necessary for them to be: “strengthened with might through His Spirit” and to “be filled with the Spirit” and “let yourselves be consistently and continually filled with the Spirit anew”. In Ephesians chapter 4 verse 30 he warns us not to grieve or to insult the Holy Spirit.

Ellen White said: “For the daily baptism of the Spirit every worker should offer his petition to God.” 59

“In order that we may have the righteousness of Christ, we need daily to be transformed by the influence of the Spirit, to be a partaker of the divine nature. It is the work of the Holy Spirit to elevate the taste, to sanctify the heart, to ennoble the whole man.” 60

The Lord said in another place through her: “Those who have been impressed by the Holy Scriptures as the voice of God, and desire to follow its teachings, are to be daily learning, daily receiving spiritual fervor and power, which have been provided for every true believer in the gift of the Holy Spirit.”

In addition she said: “We are to follow Christ day by day. God does not bestow help for tomorrow.”

And in another place: “A connection with the divine agency every moment is essential to our progress. We may have had a measure of the Spirit of God, but by prayer and faith we are continually to seek more of the Spirit.”

I also found this amazing quote: “You need a daily baptism of the love that in the days of the apostles made them all of one accord.”

Romans 5:5 shows us that God’s love is poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit. We find the same thing in Ephesians 3:17. The daily baptism with the Holy Spirit (being filled with the Holy Spirit) causes at the same time a daily baptism with love (being filled with God’s agape love). In addition, it says in Galatians 5:16 and Romans 8:2, that as a result, the power of sin is broken. (More on page 109, in the section “Can a person remain spiritual?”)

THE IMPORTANCE OF PERSONAL WORSHIP

What importance does personal worship have if it is so important that I daily surrender to Jesus and ask to be filled with the Holy Spirit?

Daily worship and the observance of the Sabbath are the foundation for a spiritual life.

We have already read Bible verses and diverse quotes that show us that the inner person is renewed day by day. This casts a clear light on the great importance of our daily personal worship.

The whole foundation for the worship service in the tabernacle was the morning and evening burnt offerings. On Sabbath there was an additional Sabbath burnt offering (Num 28:4,10). What importance did the burnt offering have?

64 Ellen G. White, Testimonies to the Church (1904), vol. 8, p. 191
“The burnt offering represented the complete surrender of the sinner to the Lord. Here the person kept nothing for themselves, but rather everything belonged to God.”

“The hours appointed for the morning and the evening sacrifice were regarded as sacred, and they came to be observed as the set time for worship throughout the Jewish nation…In this custom Christians have an example for morning and evening prayer. While God condemns a mere round of ceremonies, without the spirit of worship, He looks with great pleasure upon those who love Him, bowing morning and evening to seek pardon for sins committed and to present their requests for needed blessings.”

Do you notice that daily worship is connected with the Sabbath as a basis for our spiritual lives? In addition, does it make it clear that it has to do with a daily surrender to Jesus Christ, who is invited through the Holy Spirit to live in us?

Have you made the most important spiritual principle your own: To give God priority over everything every day? Jesus said in the Sermon on the Mount: “But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.” (Matt 6:33 NKJV)

The kingdom of God is when you have Christ in your heart now. Jesus personifies the kingdom of God (Mark 10:15; Luke 17:20-21). This is why we need to daily surrender and to daily ask for the Holy Spirit during our worship time. The decisive moment will be when we stand before God: Did we have the saving personal relationship with Christ and did we stay in Him? (see John 15:1-17) Don’t you long for more - for greater fulfillment in your faith?

Whoever spends little or no quiet time with God or only has an inadequate worship time will probably only be strengthened by their worship once or twice a week. That is similar to someone only eating once or twice a week. To make a comparison: Wouldn’t it be absurd to only want to nourish yourself once a week? Doesn’t this mean that a Christian without worship is carnal?

This also means that if he stays in this condition then he isn’t saved. When we are carnal Christians worship can be just an obligation. When we are spiritual then worship will become more and more a necessity and joy.

In order that we may have the righteousness of Christ, we need daily to be transformed by the influence of the Spirit, to be a partaker of the divine nature.

Years ago I read a booklet by Jim Vaus: I was a Gangster. He was a criminal who became converted. He wholeheartedly confessed his sins - for example perjury, theft, etc. He experienced tremendous divine intervention. This impressed me. I said to myself: I am doing fine in almost every way, but I don’t have experiences like that. Then I prayed to the Lord: “Father in heaven, I also want to confess all my known sins and all the sins that you will yet show me. In addition, I will get up an hour earlier to pray and read the Bible. Then I want to see if you will also intervene in my life.”

Praise God! He intervened in my life. Since then, especially my morning worship in connection with the Sabbath has become the basis for my life with God.

Through daily surrender and through being daily filled with the Holy Spirit our lives will be beneficially changed. As a result, our new life “in Christ” will be preserved and will bear fruit. This happens during our personal worship time.
WHAT DO PASTORS SAY? (PART 1)

We do not do one thing
We are looking for good solutions of all kinds, but we do not do one thing: Ask for the authority of the Holy Spirit. The church is aware of its fruitlessness, its weak impression on people. She also feels that her real authority is missing. In seeking this authority, she is ready to try and do everything, but one thing she does not do is seek the authority of the Holy Spirit.
M.L.-J., Telos 385

Return to first love
Through the infilling of the Holy Spirit, I was led to a closer walk with Jesus, experienced a return to that ‘first love’ of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Personal changes began happening within me that could only stem from the indwelling of the Spirit of God. In my ministry, I began seeing a power as I had never seen before. D. S.

A gift from heaven
Your script on Steps to Personal Awakening is truly a gift from heaven, first to you and then to all readers. Although some very practical and deep spiritual books have come to the church lately, this booklet is extraordinary. In such a compact yet quite detailed way, the way to becoming filled with the Holy Spirit is presented. Those who read it cannot help but make their spiritual inventory and make a decision. H. I waisted time taking the important as obvious
I am reading Steps to Personal Revival in Spanish for the third time. I just got to the point of how much time I had waisted as a church member and as an Adventist pastor taking the important as obvious in my relation with Jesus. The book came to me at a very special time in my life and ministry. All I can say is that I am enjoying the blessing through the Holy Spirit in my life in such a different approach and experience. The thesis of the book became a reality in my Life. E. L., EE 300319 from USA #92

  3. that Jesus’ character will grow in you.
WORSHIP IN SPIRIT AND IN TRUTH

The main objective is worshipping God. In God’s last message to humanity it has to do with worshipping the creator in contrast to worshipping the beast (Rev 14:6-12). The outward sign of worship is the Sabbath (worshipping the creator). The inner attitude of worship is shown in John 4:23-24: “But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him. God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.”

To worship in spirit certainly means to worship consciously, but also to be filled with the Holy Spirit. To worship in truth means living in complete surrender to Jesus, who is the truth in person. Jesus said: “I am the truth.” (John 14:6) And it means through the indwelling of Jesus to live according to God’s word and directives, because He said: “Your word is truth.” (John 17:17) and Psalm 119:142 says: “Your law is truth.” If we don’t have real worship now, then aren’t we in danger of failing at a critical moment? This will be a big problem for all the carnal Christians.

I think we all want to make progress with God’s help and to grow in knowledge. It may be that the following false belief was a hindrance for some in moving forwards.

BAPTISM AND THE HOLY SPIRIT

Some people think they are filled with the Holy Spirit because they are baptized and thus everything is ok and they don’t need to do anything more. D. L. Moody commented on this: “Many think that because they were filled once that they are filled forever. Oh my friend, we are porous vessels; it is necessary for us to constantly remain under the fountain in order to be full.”

Joseph H. Waggoner said: “In all cases, where baptism is seen as proof for the gift of the Holy Spirit, the repentant sinner is lulled into carnal

67 D. L. Moody, They Found the Secret, pp. 85, 86; quoted in 10 Days—Prayers and Devotions … by Dennis Smith, p. 23
security. He solely trusts on his baptism as a sign of God's grace. Baptism and not the Spirit in his heart will be his sign or ‘testimony’ …” 68

Baptism is definitely a significant decision; this corresponds to God’s will. It has and will retain great significance. But we shouldn’t look back to an event in the past as proof that we are filled with the Holy Spirit. Instead, we should know now and experience now that we are filled with the Holy Spirit.

Some people received the Holy Spirit before they were baptized - for example Cornelius and his household or Saul. Others received the Holy Spirit after they were baptized - for example the Samaritans or the 12 men in Ephesus. But it is all the same when a person received the Holy Spirit before, at or after baptism. What matters is that we received the Holy Spirit at some time and that we have Him in our hearts now. It isn’t crucial what happened in the past, but rather how things are now - today!

Ekkehardt Müller said: “When a person surrenders themselves completely to God in response to His initiative, then rebirth and baptism with the Holy Spirit happen at the same time. Furthermore, it should be kept in mind that the indwelling of the Holy Spirit in a person follows rebirth, but isn’t a process that automatically takes place. The relationship has to be renewed daily.” 69

I want to remind you again: We received our physical lives at birth. Our life is maintained by daily food, drink, exercise, sleep, etc. otherwise we wouldn’t live very long. The same laws apply to our spiritual lives. We received new life through the Holy Spirit, namely when we completely surrendered ourselves to Christ. Our spiritual life is maintained through the Holy Spirit, prayer, the word of God, etc. Ellen G. White said: “The natural life is preserved moment by moment by divine power; yet it is not sustained by a direct miracle, but through the use of blessings placed within our reach. So the spiritual life is sustained by the use of those means that Providence has supplied.” 70

Neither the physical nor the spiritual life remains automatically in us. It is necessary to use the means that God has provided for us.

This means: When we are born again the Holy Spirit is given to us to stay. But in order for Him to stay it depends upon the daily use of the means,

68 Joseph H. Waggoner, The Spirit of God (Battle Creek, Michigan 1 877), p. 35f, quoted in Garrie F. Williams, Erfüllt vom Heiligen Geist (Lüneburg, 2007), S. 58
69 Ekkehard Müller, Die Lehre von Gott: Biblischer Befund und Theologische Herausforderung, Bogenhofen 2010, S. 224
which the Lord has provided us with. What result can we expect if we don’t use the “means”?

The Holy Spirit is the most important of all these “means”. In addition, prayer is very important, being connected to God through His word, taking part in the worship services and other things.

I think we can agree that as a rule it is also necessary to daily care for the inner person. If we don’t do it, then we will experience regrettable consequences. We can neither eat ahead nor can we stock up on the Holy Spirit. “God does not bestow help for tomorrow.” I think it is reasonably clear that daily surrender to Jesus is necessary and that we should daily invite the Holy Spirit into our lives.

Both of these matters serve the same purpose - they are two sides of the same coin; having an intimate relationship with Christ. I give myself to Him through surrender and by asking for the Holy Spirit I am inviting Him into my heart. Among other Bible verses 1 John 3:24 (see also John 14:17, 23) shows us that Jesus lives in us through the Holy Spirit: “And by this we know that He abides in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us.”

THE EFFECTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

When the Holy Spirit is in me He accomplishes in me what Christ achieved. Romans 8:2 says: “For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death.” Romans 8:4: “So that the just requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.” We can explain the “law of the Spirit” as the manner in which the Holy Spirit works in a heart completely surrendered to God. It is a matter of the life-giving power of the Holy Spirit. Only the Holy Spirit can bring to life in me what Christ achieved. Ellen G. White explains it well: “The Spirit was to be given as a regenerating agent, and without this the sacrifice of Christ would have been of no avail ... It is the Spirit that makes effectual what has been wrought out by the world’s Redeemer. It is by the Spirit that the heart is made pure. Through the Spirit the believer becomes a partaker of the divine nature ... The power of God awaits their demand and reception.”

Thomas A. Davis describes this process as follows: “This means that even the effectiveness of Christ’s work for people is dependent on the Holy Spirit. Without Him everything Jesus did on this earth—in Gethsemane, on the cross, the resurrection and His priestly ministry in heaven—would be unsuccessful. The outcome of Christ’s work wouldn’t be much more useful than that of some big world religion or ethical leader. But although Christ was much more than these, He couldn’t save humanity alone through His example and teachings. To change people it was necessary to work in them. This work is done by the Holy Spirit, who was sent to do this in people’s hearts, which Jesus had made possible.”

Isn’t this alone reason enough to see to it that you are filled with the Holy Spirit? “When the Spirit of God takes possession of the heart, it transforms the life. Sinful thoughts are put away, evil deeds are renounced; love, humility and peace take the place of anger, envy and strife. Joy takes the place of sadness, and the countenance reflects the light of heaven.”

There are many other valuable results from a life with the Holy Spirit but there are also great deficiencies and losses without Him. The difference between a life with and without the Holy Spirit will be dealt with in more detail in chapter 4.

AM I FILLED WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT?

Please ask yourself the following questions about being filled with the Holy Spirit:

- Are there any noticeable effects of the Holy Spirit in my life? For example, has He made Jesus real and great to you? (John 15:16)
- Am I starting to hear and understand the inner voice of the Holy Spirit? Can He lead me in the big and little decisions in my life? (Rom 8:14)
- Has a new kind of love for my fellow man arisen in me? Does the Holy Spirit give me tender compassion and profound concern for people, who I wouldn’t normally choose as my friends? (Gal 5:22; James 2:8,9)
- Do I experience again and again how the Holy Spirit helps me to deal with my fellow men? Does He give me the right words to reach a person’s heart, who has worries and cares?

Does the Holy Spirit give me strength to share about Jesus and lead others to Him?

Do I experience how He helps me in my prayer life and helps me to express the deepest feelings of my heart to God?

When we think about these questions, we see what a great need we have to grow in the Holy Spirit, to get to know Him better and to love Him more.

A brother wrote: My father and I have become reconciled. After studying Steps to Personal Revival and the 40 Days books one and two, I had the wonderful experience of being filled with the Holy Spirit. It was especially exciting for me to experience how the Holy Spirit works and wants to work in every area of my life.

RECONCILIATION BETWEEN FATHER AND SON

My relationship with my father was always somewhat complicated. My wishes and prayers during my childhood and youth were always that I would have a better relationship with my father. But it got progressively worse. Another six to seven years went by. God filled the great emptiness in my heart. While studying and praying for the Holy Spirit, my wife and I had a lot of big experiences with God. We prayed for our family and especially for my father. During this time I received new power to love my father. I was able to forgive him for everything that hadn’t gone well in our relationship since my childhood. My father and I are now friends. He also started to become more spiritual and also started telling other people about God. Now, two years later, the relationship to my father is still very good. I thank God for this experience. I used to feel so powerless and often alone. But since I have started to pray daily for the Holy Spirit, I am experiencing a new and wonderful type of life and relationship with God. (Name known by the editor.)

Prayer:

Lord Jesus, I thank you that you want to remain in me through the Holy Spirit. Thank you that through daily surrender our trust and love relationship is growing. Lord, help me to get to know the Holy Spirit and His work better. I long to know what He wants to do for me, my family and my church and how we can have the assurance that we can receive the Holy Spirit when we daily ask Thank you for this. Amen
Ellen G. White said: “To Jesus … the Holy Spirit was given without measure. So it will be given to every follower of Christ when the whole heart is surrendered for His indwelling. Our Lord Himself has given the command, “Be filled with the Spirit” (Eph 5:18), and this command is also a promise of its fulfillment. It was the good pleasure of the Father that in Christ should “all the fullness dwell,” and “in Him ye are made full”. Our Father, we ask in Jesus’ name, fill us “with all the fullness of God” (Eph 3:19).

SUPPLEMENT FOR EPHESIANS 5:18—
“BE FILLED WITH THE SPIRIT!”

We can already see in the English text in Eph 5:18 that this appeal is made in the imperative. Further, we can see that this command is directed to everyone. And we can also see that it is our duty to seek the fullness of the Holy Spirit. But the original Greek text makes it even clearer.

Johannes Mager comments on this: “In the New Testament letters there is only one passage which speaks directly about being filled with the Holy Spirit: ‘Be filled with the Spirit.’ (Eph 5:18) In the book of Acts we find that being imbued with the Holy Spirit is a gift, which is used to act in a powerful way in specific situations. However, Paul states being filled with the Holy Spirit as a commandment, which is independent from situations in life and applies to all Jesus’ followers. This short but important command comprises four crucial aspects:

1. The verb ‘fill’ (pleréin) is used in the imperative form. Paul does not make a recommendation here or give a friendly piece of advice. He doesn’t make a suggestion that a person can accept or reject. He commands as an empowered apostle. A command always appeals to a person’s will. If a Christian is filled with the Holy Spirit, then it depends to a large degree on himself. Christians are subject to the command to strive to be filled with the Holy Spirit. This is our responsibility as people to be filled with the Holy Spirit.

2. The verb is used in the plural form. The command isn’t directed at a single person in the church, who has special duties. Being filled with the Holy Spirit isn’t a privilege for a few favored people. The call applies to everyone who belongs to the church—always and everywhere. There are no exceptions. For Paul it was normal that all Christians should be filled with the Holy Spirit.

---

3. The verb is in the passive tense. It doesn’t say: ‘Fill yourselves with the Spirit!’ but rather ‘Be filled with the Spirit!’ No person can fill themselves with the Holy Spirit. This is exclusively the work of the Holy Spirit. Herein lies His sovereignty. But the individual should create the conditions so that the Holy Spirit can fill him. Without his active will the Holy Spirit won’t work in him.

4. In Greek the imperative is in the present tense. This imperative present tense describes an event that is constantly repeated in contrast to the imperative aorist tense, which describes a one-time action. According to this, being filled with the Holy Spirit isn’t a one-time experience, but rather a recurrent and progressive process. A Christian isn’t like a vessel that is filled once for all time, but rather has to be constantly ‘refilled.’ The sentence could be expressed this way: ‘Let yourselves be consistently and repeatedly filled anew with the Spirit!’

Being filled with the Holy Spirit, which was given to us at baptism [provided it was a baptism in water and Spirit with a complete surrender], can be lost when the fullness that was given us isn’t retained. If it is lost, it can be found again. Being filled with the Spirit must be repeated so that the Holy Spirit can occupy all areas of our life. Then our spiritual life will not wilt feebly. Being filled with the Spirit doesn’t mean that we quantitatively have more of Him, but rather that the Spirit has more and more of us. That’s why Paul commanded all the believers to be constantly filled with the Spirit. This is a normal condition for a Christian. One baptism, but many ‘fillings.’”

The Lord himself has given the command: * Let yourselves be consistently and repeatedly filled anew with the Spirit! **

A COMPARISON BETWEEN CARNAL AND SPIRITUAL CHRISTIANITY

The consequences of carnal Christianity have already been partially listed for individual persons. Some of the consequences express themselves as follows:

- The person is not saved in this condition (Rom 8:6-8; Rev 3:16).
- God’s love—the agape love—isn’t in the person (Rom 5:5; Gal 5:22); they are completely dependent on their human love; the lust of the flesh isn’t broken (Gal 5:16).
- The person hasn’t been strengthened with power through His Spirit (Eph 3:16-17).
- Christ doesn’t live in this person (1 Joh 3:24; Eph 3:16,17.)
- The person hasn’t received the power to witness for Christ (Acts 1:8).
- The person acts in a human way (1 Cor 3:3) which can easily cause rivalries and tensions.
- As a rule it is harder for this person to accept admonition.
Their prayer life may be inadequate.

The person only has human abilities to forgive and not bear a grudge.

The person doesn’t experience a fundamental change of character (2 Cor 5:17).

What Jesus accomplished is only theory; it hasn’t come alive for him (Rom 8:1-4).

The carnal Christian acts at times like a natural man. Paul says: “are you not carnal and behaving like mere men” (1 Cor 3:3 NKJV). Other times his actions are like those of the spiritual person, although he lives by his own power and abilities and seems very pious.

On the other hand, the spiritual Christian experiences the fullness of God: “That He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might through His Spirit in the inner man, that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and depth and height—to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think according to the power that works in us, to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.” (Eph 3:16-21 NKJV)

EFFECTS OF CARNAL CHRISTIANITY

I am sorry for the losses in my family and in the churches where I worked as a pastor as a result of my lack of the Holy Spirit. It is also true in this area that we can lead no one further than we are ourselves. We also need to realize that personal deficiencies in the Holy Spirit in an individual person, in a family and in a church adds up and multiplies.

CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Carnal Christianity is a breeding ground for a liberal Christian life. People ignorantly try with good intentions to do what they can’t do and then search for a way out. Is this the reason we are losing so many of our youth? Have we in ignorance or for other reasons set an example for our children and young people of carnal Christianity? As a result, did they become carnal Christians and hence have to struggle with discouragement? Is this the reason why many don’t take it very seriously or don’t come to church anymore or have left the church?

Not long ago an older brother told his church: “There is a reason for the problems we have today in our own lives and in the lives of our youth: the older generation has failed to understand the working of the Holy Spirit and to be filled by Him.” 78

In the book Christ’s Object Lessons we read: “Many who listen to the preaching of the word of God make it the subject of criticism at home … Often these things are spoken by parents in the hearing of their own children … Thus in the homes of professed (carnal) Christians many youth are educated to be infidels.” 79

May I remind you again of the consequence of lukewarmness (an incomplete surrender to Christ): “Halfhearted Christians are worse than infidels: for their deceptive words and noncommittal position lead many astray. The infidel shows his colors. The lukewarm Christian deceives both parties. He is neither a good worldling nor a good Christian. Satan uses him to do a work that no one else can do.” 80

However, if we live spiritually, we can show our children how to have God’s power and help. Ellen White says something really amazing: “Teach your children that it is their privilege to receive every day the baptism of the Holy Spirit. Let Christ find you His helping hand to carry out His purposes. By prayer you may gain an experience that will make your ministry for your children a perfect success.” 81

We taught our sons to pray. But did we teach them to pray daily for the Holy Spirit? Or didn’t we know that ourselves? At that time my wife and I didn’t know it. I am thankful that God overlooked this time where we lacked knowledge. But as a consequence how much loss occurred?

What wonderful children spiritual parents will have when they daily commit themselves to Jesus and pray for the Holy Spirit.

ATMOSPHERE—
DIVINE LOVE OR ONLY BEING NICE TO EACH OTHER?

What difference can it make to the atmosphere of marriages and families, churches and fellowships depending on whether there are carnal or spiritual Christians present? What is it like if the power of God is missing for a disciplined life, if God’s love is missing and the power of sin isn’t broken? A life where all these things are present through God’s grace is a great contrast.

Conservative carnal Christians tend to criticize. This isn’t good. Although we have to talk about God’s good directives, we should at the same time realize that essential change will only happen when the change comes from within.

Liberals tend not to take things seriously and adapt to worldly methods. God can’t bless this either.

Joseph Kidder discovered the following general condition of the church today: “Lethargy, superficiality, worldliness, lack of generosity, ministers are burned out, teenagers are leaving the church, weak self-discipline, plans without any real background or result, a chronic lack of strong and dedicated men.”

The cause of our problem is the lack of our connection with Jesus (John 15:1-5) and too much trust in human efforts (Zech 4:6). Kidder also sees the solution in a life filled with the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:8).

Jesus gave us a new command: “A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another.” (Joh 13:34,35 NKJV)

To love as Jesus does means: to love with divine love (agape). We can only do this when we are filled with the Holy Spirit.

“Supreme love for God and unselfish love for one another - this is the best gift that our heavenly Father can bestow. This love is not an impulse, but a divine principle, a permanent power. The unconsecrated heart [everyone who isn’t filled with the Holy Spirit] cannot originate or produce it. Only in the heart where Jesus reigns is it found.”

I think there is a massive difference between being only ‘nice’ to each other and going beyond that and loving with God’s love. Ellen G. White gives us a significant clue: “By putting on the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, ninety-nine out of a hundred of the troubles which so terribly embitter life might be saved.”

God’s word indicates in 1 Thess 4:3-8 something about marital life. Among other things these verses speak about living in sanctification and respectability within marriage. It is contrasted to the passionate lust of the Gentiles. Since it mentions a life of sanctification three times and also having the Holy Spirit, we realize that a life with the Holy Spirit can and should change our marriage relationships as well. God meant for us to have great joy and fulfillment in our marital life. Doesn’t this show us that God wants to help us deal with loving tenderness rather than with lust?

Jesus prayed for the unity of His disciples: “That they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me.” (John 17: 21 NKJV)

William G. Johnsson says: “Many Adventists still have to comprehend what it means to be one with Christ. In the past we have probably not attached enough importance to it or hitched up the horse at the wrong end.”

Christ is in us when we are filled with the Holy Spirit. Spiritual Christianity contributes to having our prayers answered by the Lord. Ellen G. White says: “When God’s people are one in the unity of the Spirit, all of Phariseeism, all of self-righteousness, which was the sin of the Jewish nation, will be expelled from all hearts … God will make known the mystery which hath been hidden for ages. He will make known what are the ‘riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory’. (Col 1:27)”

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN FORGIVENESS AND BEING FREED FROM INJURIES

I received the following letter: “I had worked through the process of really forgiving my father and thought that I had made progress. But when I read the booklet (Steps to Personal Revival) the Holy Spirit showed me deep-seated resentment that I thought I had conquered. Far too often we cling to resentment as justification for some wrong that was done to us. But I have learned that we have to let go of these feelings if we want to receive God’s Spirit in fullness. I had to make the decision to let go of them. By God’s grace my heart was stirred by compassion for my father as a lost person and I started to earnestly pray for his salvation. Not long afterwards, my father called my sister and in tears told her ‘Jesus loves me, Jesus loves me’. He shared with her that he had read through the gospel of John and was deeply impressed that Jesus had died for him. Everyone that knew him would say: ‘That isn’t like him at all!’ But God answered my prayers in a remarkable way.”

“The carnal Christian, who doesn’t have or doesn’t have enough of the Holy Spirit, only has the human capability to forgive and not be resentful. The Holy Spirit gives us complete forgiveness and freedom as well as the ability to love the one who has hurt us.”

CORRECTIVE COUNSELING

Will there be any benefit in corrective counseling when it is not done or hardly done with God’s love? What decisions will a church make if it is composed largely of carnal Christians or even has a carnal pastor or president? When I think back on my work as a pastor, I have the impression that spiritual church members tend to bring fallen members back to reason. And when the person repents and confesses, then the counseling has fulfilled its purpose. Sometimes carnal Christians tend to use counseling as punishment and even misuse it to exercise power (Matt 18:15-17; 1 Cor 3:1-4; 2 Cor 10:3; Jude v. 19).

87 Excerpt from the General Conference Prayer Letter Number 148)
GOD’S PROPHETIC WORD FOR THE LAST DAYS

God has the custom of revealing important developments through His prophets (Amos 3:7). Thus He gave important prophetic messages for the last days through Ellen White. Since many things would be completely different than in past times, it was important and necessary to have relevant additional information from God. Today we would call it an “update”. According to Ellen White these messages are relevant until Jesus comes again. Since her counsel includes lifestyle change, reproof, admonitions, etc. a spiritual person can more easily accept it than a carnal person. (But just because someone takes these counsels seriously, it doesn’t automatically mean that they are spiritual.) It would be wise to think about the words in Deuteronomy 18:19 NKJV: “And it shall be that whoever will not hear My words, which He (the prophet) speaks in My name, I will require it of him.”

This shows us clearly that the message from a true prophet doesn’t have to do with that person, but rather with God himself. How can we know if someone is a true prophet? God’s Word gives us five test points. A true prophet must comply with all five points.

1. Their way of life—“Therefore by their fruits you will know them.” (Matt 7:15-20)
2. Fulfillment of prophecies: Deut 18:21-22 (with the exception of conditional prophecies—for example Jonah.)
3. Call for loyalty to God (God’s word) (Deut 13:1-5).
4. Recognize Jesus as a true person and the true God (1 John 4:1-3)
5. Agree with the teachings of the Bible (John 17:17).

All of God’s commands, including His counsel through the prophets, are for our own good. That is why they are exceptionally valuable. Hence spiritual people can obey in God’s power and with joy and know that it contributes to success in life. “Believe in the Lord your God, and you shall be established; believe His prophets, and you shall prosper.” (2 Chron 20:20b NKJV)

Our Sabbath school study guide says the following about the relationship between a life with the Holy Spirit and the word of a true prophet: “Whoever rejects the prophetic word, closes themselves to the instruction of the Holy Spirit. The result today is no different than it was then—loss of a relationship with God and being open to negative influences.”

Why is this so? Can the Lord give us the Holy Spirit when we reject a gift of the Holy Spirit—the prophetic word?

PLANNING / STRATEGY

An important task is to search for good solutions and methods for conducting the tasks of the church and mission work. It is a question of our plans and strategies. It mainly has to do with strengthening the church spiritually and winning more souls.

I have been baptized for 65 years and have been a minister for 43 years. We have developed an abundance of programs and methods. We were very industrious. In this context I have to think again about the words of Dwight Nelson at the General Conference session in 2005.

“Our church has exhaustively developed admirable forms, plans and programs, but if we don’t finally admit our spiritual bankruptcy [lack of Holy Spirit], which has taken hold of many of us ministers and leaders, we will never go beyond our pro forma Christianity.”

In the same tenor Dennis Smith says the following: “I have nothing against plans, programs and methods. But I am afraid that we often depend on these things to move God’s work forward. Plans, programs and methods will not complete God’s work. Great speakers, wonderful Christian concerts, satellite broadcasts won’t end God’s work. God’s Spirit will end the work—God’s Spirit that speaks and serves through Spirit-filled men and women.”

BAPTISM / WINNING SOULS

The Bible shows us that the Holy Spirit is a crucial prerequisite for winning people for Christ (see the book of Acts). In Germany we have on the one hand churches which are growing and on the other hand churches which are stagnant or shrinking. Worldwide, the number of members in

90 Dennis Smith, 40 Days—Prayers and Devotions to Prepare for the Second Coming (Wien, 2012), p. 88
our church has grown twentyfold in the last 60 years. We can certainly list many reasons for this situation in Germany. But one thing is clear for me: The main reason is the lack of the Holy Spirit. Naturally this problem has intensely preoccupied us. We have developed or adapted many plans and programs. We have seen that a lack of the Holy Spirit in this great effort has led to a loss of funds and time since we pursued unnecessary or unsuccessful ways. Two quotes from Ellen G. White illustrate this situation: “The Lord does not now work to bring many souls into the truth, because of the church members who have never been converted and those who were once converted but who have backslidden. What influence would these unconsecrated members [carnal Christians] have on new converts?” 91

“If we would humble ourselves before God, and be kind and courteous and tenderhearted and pitiful, there would be one hundred conversions to the truth where now there is only one.” 92

Notably, we baptise people who aren’t prepared sufficiently. Ellen G. White said: “The new birth is a rare experience in this age of the world. This is the reason why there are so many perplexities in the churches. Many, so many, who assume the name of Christ are unsanctified and unholy. They have been baptized, but they were buried alive. Self did not die, and therefore they did not rise to newness of life in Christ.” 93

This was written in 1897. What is the situation like today? The problem is: whoever isn’t born again hasn’t been filled with the Holy Spirit. Jesus said: “Unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.” (John 3:5 NKJV) Isn’t it true that we meet with the lack of the Holy Spirit in every area?

THE HOLY SPIRIT AND PREACHING

God tells us the following about the meaning of the Holy Spirit and preaching: “The preaching of the word will be of no avail without the continual presence and aid of the Holy Spirit. This is the only effectual teacher of divine truth. Only when the truth is accompanied to the heart by the Spirit will it quicken the conscience or transform the life. One might be able to present the letter of the word of God, he might be familiar with all its commands and promises; but unless the Holy Spirit sets home the truth, no souls will fall on the Rock and be broken. No amount of education, no advantages, however great, can make one a channel of light without the co-operation of the Spirit of God.”

Preaching doesn’t only take place during a sermon, but also in lectures, Bible studies, care groups or other means.

Randy Maxwell says: “But the truth is, we’re dying of thirst for contact with the living God!”

Does the lack of the Holy Spirit also cause us to fear? Could Emilio Knechtle be right when he says: “Why don’t we succeed in turning this corrupt world upside down? Something has gone wrong with our convictions. We are afraid of conflicts, we are afraid of run-ins, we are afraid of difficulties, we are afraid of losing our job, we are afraid to lose our reputation, we are afraid to lose our lives. So we keep silent and hide. We are afraid to proclaim the gospel to the world in a loving and yet powerful manner.”

The solution to this problem is found in Acts 4:31 NKJV: “And when they had prayed, the place where they were assembled together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness.”

THE HOLY SPIRIT AND OUR LITERATURE

The following is said about our literature: “If the salvation of God is with the one that writes for the paper, the same spirit will be felt by the reader. A piece written in the Spirit of God, angels approbate and impress the same upon the readers. But a piece written when the writer is not living wholly for the glory of God, not wholly devoted to him, angels feel the lack in sadness. They turn away and do not impress the reader with it because God and his Spirit are not in it. The words are good but it lacks the warm influence of the Spirit of God.”

What meaning does this insight have for the distribution of literature?

_I want to emphasize again: Naturally everything we did wasn’t wrong. By no means. We have developed good and very good things; God certainly blessed our human efforts as far as possible. But the important question is: Do we approach these duties as spiritual or carnal Christians? One thing is certain: When we struggle to find solutions on a carnal basis, we will invest a lot of time in vain; we will perform many tasks, which will be of no use._

HOLY SPIRIT: NO FORMER RAIN, NO LATTER RAIN

“The former rain, being filled with the Holy Spirit, brings us the necessary spiritual maturity, which is essential so that we can benefit from the latter rain.” 98

“The latter rain, ripening earth’s harvest, represents the spiritual grace that prepares the church for the coming of the Son of man. But unless the former rain has fallen, there will be no life; the green blade will not spring up. Unless the early showers have done their work, the latter rain can bring no seed to perfection.” 99

THE HOLY SPIRIT AND BIBLICAL SANCTIFICATION

“This work (biblical sanctification) can be accomplished only through faith in Christ, by the power of the indwelling Spirit of God.” 100

GREAT MISSION WORK WITHOUT THE HOLY SPIRIT?

Could great institutions, successful evangelistic programs and powerful mission strategies have been developed without the Holy Spirit? Andrew Murray, the great missionary to South Africa, knew that this scenario was very possible and, indeed, reality in most of Christendom when he wrote:

“I may preach or write or think or meditate, and delight in being occupied with things in God’s Book and in God’s Kingdom; and yet the power of the Holy Spirit may be markedly absent. I fear that if you take the preaching throughout the Church of Christ and ask why there is, alas! so little converting power in the preaching of the Word, why there is so much work and often so little success for eternity, why the Word has so little power to build up believers in holiness and in consecration—the answer will come: It is the absence of the power of the Holy Spirit. And why is this? There can be no other reason but that the flesh [see Gal 3:3] and human energy have taken the place that the Holy Spirit ought to have.”

THE HOLY SPIRIT AND HEALTH

“Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God’s mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship.” (Rom 12:1 NIV)

“Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? If anyone defiles the temple of God, God will destroy him. For the temple of God is holy, which temple you are.” (1 Cor 3:16-17 NKJV)

“Oh do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own? For you were bought at a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God’s.” (1 Cor 6:19,20; see also: Exodus 15:26)

People filled with the Holy Spirit are God’s temple. Have you ever stopped to think what implications this has for your life? A temple is God’s dwelling place. God said to Moses: “And let them make Me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among them.” (Ex 25:8)

If we take this statement seriously, then taking care of our health and our lifestyle will become a deliberate part of our discipleship. Our body belongs to God. Do you want to treat God’s property carefully? Yes, we want to treat our bodies carefully and according to God’s instructions! This demands a certain amount of discipline. Someone, who is filled with the Holy Spirit, can and will usually implement this discipline with joy. The reward is better health in body, soul and spirit. Someone, who isn’t filled with the Holy Spirit, will struggle and suffer disadvantages. God expects that we maintain the best possible health in body and spirit for His glory, for His service and for our own joy. In this area there is also no replacement for being filled with the Holy Spirit. When Jesus lives in us through the Holy Spirit, then He is also “the Lord who heals you”. (Exodus 15:26) Healing is always manifest in a way that is best for the person concerned and also to God’s glory. This can raise the question: Does the divine doctor heal everyone?

“An older Cambodian woman came as a refugee to a mission hospital, which was in a refugee camp in Thailand. She was dressed in the clothes of a Buddhist nun. She asked to be treated by Dr. Jesus. So they told her about Jesus. She placed her trust in Him and was healed body and soul. When she was able to return to Cambodia she was able to win 37 people for Christ.”

During loyal king Hezekiah’s sickness the Lord sent him a message: “Surely I will heal you.” (2 Kings 20:1-11) But why didn’t the Lord heal him with a word, but instead gave him the task of putting on a fig poultice? Could it be that the Lord expects our participation through natural remedies or changes in our diet, exercise, rest, etc.? Why didn’t God heal Paul, but left him with a “thorn in his flesh”? Paul himself said: “Lest I should be exalted above measure by the abundance of the revelations.” (2 Cor 12:7-10) However Ellen G. White tells us: “The influence of the Spirit of God is the very best medicine that can be received by a sick man or woman. Heaven is all health; and the more deeply the heavenly influences are realized, the more sure will be the recovery of the believing invalid.”

Isn’t it remarkable and significant what a certain business man wrote? He shared how all the health seminars hadn’t done him any good. But since he started to daily pray for the Holy Spirit, he had completely shifted to a healthy lifestyle and had adopted a vegetarian diet. Doesn’t this show that being filled with the Holy Spirit can motivate us and give us strength along with joy to accept a healthy lifestyle?

A sister read this experience. She wrote: Through my complete surrender to Jesus, God changed my life completely in a moment. After my prayer of surrender I went into the kitchen the next morning, stood by the coffee machine, shook my head and said to myself: no, I don’t drink coffee anymore. In the past this would have been unthinkable, because when I tried to quit drinking coffee, I had had horrible headaches for five days—these were strong withdrawal symptoms. This time I didn’t even think about what consequences it would have for me. I only knew that I didn’t want to drink coffee anymore. Today I have no more desire for coffee. This was only one of many changes in her life. (I recommend the 5th “Andreasbrief” or “Andrew Letter” on victory over tobacco and alcohol for anyone who wants to be free from addictions. It explains in length the way to deliverance through prayer and promises [available in German and English].)

A life with the Holy Spirit will greatly promote health reform. It is a matter of health information linked with power to change. Don Mackintosh, Director of Newstart Global, Weimar, CA, says: “The real need of our day is not simply health education—we have excellent information. What is needed is health information coupled with power to put it into practice, which is the power to change.”

Dr. Tim Howe says: “Health education alone is not medical missionary work. Health education does not provide healing any more than the law of God provides salvation. To realize health or salvation the transforming power of God must be experienced.”

Finally, I would like to ask the question: What about faith healings? Can any be expected without being filled with the Holy Spirit? (see Mark 16:17-18; James 5:14-16)

PREPARATION FOR JESUS’ SECOND COMING

There is no substitute for intimate fellowship with Jesus through the Holy Spirit as preparation for the Second Coming. When Christ lives in me through the Holy Spirit, then I am ready through His grace. The three following areas can show this. (This is dealt with in detail in Spirit Baptism and Earth’s Final Events, by Dennis Smith.)

Personal Relationship to Christ

Jesus said: “And this is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent.” (John 17:3 NKJV) “Know” has a deeper meaning in the Bible than it does today in the English language. It means a complete, mutual and loving commitment. It is only present in a life with the Holy Spirit. This thought is expressed in the following quote:

“We must have a living connection with God. We must be clothed with power from on high by the baptism of the Holy Spirit, that we may reach a higher standard; for there is help for us in no other way.”

In the parable of the 10 virgins Jesus said to the foolish ones: “I do not know you.” What was the reason? The lack of oil, which represents the lack of the Holy Spirit (Matt. 25:1-13). The men, who crucified Jesus, had great knowledge of the Old Testament. But because of their false interpretation they didn’t look for a personal relationship with Jesus.

Are we aware that the generation of the last days, due to end-time circumstances, will need an intimate connection to God?

Righteousness by Faith

God’s last message to humanity in the three angels’ message has to do with the question of the proclamation of the “eternal gospel” (Rev 14: 6-7). What is the essence of this message that the whole world should and will hear? It is righteousness by grace through faith in Jesus Christ alone (Eph 2:8-9). Those who proclaim this last day message with power, must experience the power of the message themselves. They have to know and experience righteousness by faith through Jesus alone as the forgiver and redeemer from sin. This is only possible in a life filled with the Holy Spirit through which Jesus Christ who enables our obedience. Jesus dwelling in us is shown by obedience to all of God’s commands. The world will be illuminated with this message (Rev 18:1).

Love for the Truth

What effects will be present in our lives today with or without a life filled with the Holy Spirit in reference to love for the truth, studying God’s word and implementing the truth in our lives? 2 Thess 2:10 NKJV says, that “… those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved” Those, who cannot be misled, have the love of truth in their hearts. How do we get this love? We can only have it when Jesus Christ lives in us through the Holy Spirit. Rom 5:5 says that the love in our hearts comes from the Holy Spirit. Eph 3:17 tells us that we will be “rooted and grounded in love” through the Holy Spirit. In John 16:13 the Holy Spirit is called “the Spirit of truth”. This shows us clearly that it is necessary to be a spiritual Christian in order to have a love for the truth. Do we have problems today with the love for the truth, to God’s word, to prophetic writings? Consider the times ahead of us: “Only those who have been diligent students of the Scriptures and who have received the love of the truth will be shielded from the powerful delusion that takes the world captive... Are the people of God now so firmly established upon His word that they would not yield to the evidence of their senses?”

109 Ellen G. White, Review and Herald, April 5, 1892

God doesn’t ask if we have discovered all truth, but rather He asks if we love the truth.

FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT OR WORKS OF THE FLESH

“The influence of the Holy Spirit is the life of Christ in the soul. We do not see Christ and speak to Him, but His Holy Spirit is just as near us in one place as in another. It works in and through every one who receives Christ. Those who know the indwelling of the Spirit reveal the fruits of the Spirit ...

Gal 5:16-21 NKJV shows us that the power of sin will be broken in us through the Holy Spirit.

“... walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, so that you do not do the things you wish. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.” (see also Rom 7:23+8:1)

“Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies, envy, murders, drunkenness, revelries and the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told you in time past, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.”

SPIRITUAL GIFTS

“Under spiritual gifts we mean the gifts given by the working of the Holy Spirit as they are listed in 1 Cor. 12:28 and Eph 4:11: apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, teachers, miracle workers, healers, helpers, administrators, a variety of tongues. These gifts play a part in ‘the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry’. … They validate the testimony of the church and give it leadership and guidance.” 112 The Holy Spirit also gives other talents for specific purposes: “in knowledge and in all manner of workmanship” (Exodus 31:2-6) or architecture (1 Chron 28:12, 19).

When we want to become Jesus’ disciples we surrender to Him everything we have and are. Hence all our talents and abilities, inherent as well as learned, are placed at His disposal. He can give us additional talents and/or He can refine and purify our natural abilities.

Can we have spiritual gifts when we have a lack of the Holy Spirit?

GOD’S CHOICE OR THE PEOPLE’S CHOICE?

We have a worldwide democratic structure in the church. But it was never thought of as popular democracy. The real goal of our votes is that everyone personally listens to God’s voice and casts his vote accordingly. By listening to God’s voice it makes God’s will known through the vote. We certainly pray before taking part in any board meetings. Often the opportunity is given before a vote is cast for personal prayer so that it becomes clear to each person how God wants them to vote. Nehemiah said: “Then my God put it into my heart …” (Neh 7:5) and Ellen G. White said about Nehemiah chapter 1: “And as he prayed, a holy purpose had been forming in his mind …” 113

Will a carnal Christian hear God’s voice? If he hasn’t consciously and completely surrendered to the Lord, then he certainly won’t get an answer (Ps 66:18; Ps 25:12). If someone, who is a carnal Christian, votes sincerely to the best of his knowledge, then humanly speaking it is ok. But in the moment human agreements are made, it becomes manipulation and sin.

The leaders have a great influence on God’s work. It definitely makes a big difference and can have major consequences if brothers and sisters are leading who have been called by God or who have been chosen only by a human vote.

While reading a book on prayer I realized that we may ask God to show us the way we should go (Ps 32:8). The quiet listening to God’s voice changed my whole life. I tell about this experience in an article called “From Business Representative to Pastor” (only available in German). There is also a good sermon to listen to from Kurt Hasel “How can I make the right decisions?” (also only available in German) And there is also a profound sermon to read from years ago by Henry Drummond: “How can I know God’s will?” (only available in German)

I am convinced that we will directly seek God’s counsel more and more in the last days.

Joel 2:28-29 indicates this. Ellen G. White comments: “We must individually hear Him speaking to the heart. When every other voice is hushed, and in quietness we wait before Him, the silence of the soul makes more distinct the voice of God. He bids us, ‘Be still, and know that I am God’ (Psalm 46:10).”

MONEY

What differences are there between spiritual and carnal Christians in relation to gaining and dealing with money? Do we see ourselves as the owners of our resources or as God’s stewards? “Love of money and love of display have made this world as a den of thieves and robbers. The Scriptures picture the greed and oppression that will prevail just before Christ’s second coming.”

GOD’S ANGELS PROTECT GOD-FEARING PEOPLE

God’s angels protect God-fearing people. “The angel of the Lord encamps all around those who fear Him, and delivers them.” (Ps 34:7 NKJV) “A guardian angel is appointed to every follower of Christ. These heavenly watchers shield the righteous from the power of the wicked one.” ¹¹⁹ —When the Bible talks about God-fearing people, followers of Christ and righteous people being under God’s protection, does this mean that it applies to anyone who sees themselves as a Christian? Does it also apply to those who haven’t completely surrendered their lives to God? It is true for children, because Jesus said in Matt 18:10 NKJV: “Take heed that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that in heaven their angels always see the face of My Father who is in heaven.” David, who completely entrusted his life to God, knew that he had no grounds for fear. He said: “The Lord is my light and my salvation; Whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; Of whom shall I be afraid?” (Ps 27:1 NKJV)

(I recommend that you read the section about the ministry of good angels in Ch.31 of the book The Great Controversy). This is a great joy for every child of God.

CLOSING REMARKS

We have only touched on a few areas. There are still many areas of life and faith which could be added. For all of them the following is true: When we review the differences now, there is not a single area that doesn’t have major advantages through a life with the Holy Spirit. And the other way around, there isn’t a single area where we don’t have great disadvantages with a life without the Holy Spirit. Shouldn’t this be a great motivation for us to daily dedicate our lives to God and to ask to be filled with the Holy Spirit?

“Some years ago a Boeing 707 took off from the Tokyo airport headed for London. It had a great take off. There was a clear, sunny sky. Soon the passengers could see the famous Mount Fuji in Japan. All of a sudden the pilot had the idea to circle around the mountain so that the passengers could enjoy this rare view.

He left the designated course of flight and changed over to visual flight. During visual flight the pilot dispenses with the security of the ground control center and depends completely on what he sees. The pilot saw the mountain close under him. His altimeter showed 4000 meters. What he didn’t see was the fall winds and gusts of wind, which raged around Mount Fuji. The Boeing 707 was no match for the winds. The plane broke in the air, crashed and all of the passengers died.”

The carnal Christian lives in “visual flight mode“. He makes all the decisions himself. In spite of his best intentions he will fail. The spiritual Christian lives through the Holy Spirit in a loving and trusting relationship with His Lord, who leads him to a safe destination.

Prayer: Father in heaven, thank you that the indwelling of Jesus through the Holy Spirit makes such a positive difference in us and in our work. Please open my eyes even more to the work of the Holy Spirit. Please give me this fullness of life through Him, which Jesus wants to give us. Please help me to discover the key to solving this problem in the next chapter and to put it into practice. Thank you. Amen.

CHAPTER 5
THE KEY TO PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE: PRAYING WITH PROMISES

How can I implement and experience God’s solution for me?

PRAYER AND BEING FILLED WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT

It is important that we go on this journey through faith and that we ask with faith for the Holy Spirit. That means that after praying for the Holy Spirit we need to trust and be certain that the Lord has answered our prayer and that He has already given us the Holy Spirit while asking.

Gal 3:14 NKJV says: “… that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.” Another translation (NIRV) says: “… that we might receive the promise of the Holy Spirit by believing in Christ.”

God has given us a great help so that we can easily trust our heavenly Father. We call it “praying with promises”. “To blot the promises of God from the Word would be like blotting the sun from the sky…. God has placed the promises in His Word to lead us to have faith in Him.” 121

PRAYING WITH PROMISES

First, here is a helpful example: Let’s assume that my child isn’t good in French at school. I want to encourage my child to work hard at French. I promise him that if he gets a good grade on his report card that he will receive $20 from me. The child starts to study hard. I also help him with French and he really does get a good grade. What happens now? When the child comes home from school and comes through the front door he calls loudly: “Dad, $20!” Why is he so certain that he will get $20? Because a promise had been made and he has fulfilled the requirements. In fact, this is normal for most people today.

121 Ellen G. White My Life Today, p. 338.2

But it could be that at that moment I don’t have $20. Can it be that God doesn’t have something that He has promised? Impossible!

Or it could be that I take my promise back and say: “I read in a book on education that you shouldn’t use money to motivate children to study. So I can’t give you the $20.” Does God change His mind later? Impossible!

We can see that when we have a promise from God and have fulfilled the requirements, then there is only one possibility: We receive the promise!

Through God’s promises He wants to encourage us to move in a certain direction. He bids us receive the Holy Spirit, which will give us God’s power in our lives. He wants to make it easy for us to trust Him. Trust is at the heart of faith.

Now we want to read some key Bible verses in 1 John 5:14,15 NKJV for praying with promises: “Now this is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us.”

God gives a general promise that He answers prayers that are according to His will. God’s will is expressed in commandments and promises. We may rely on them in our prayers. Then in verse 15 it goes on to say: “And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we have asked of Him.”

Another translation (NIRV) says: “If we know that God hears what we ask for, we know that we have it.”

What does that mean? Our prayers according to God’s will are answered in the same moment that we bring them to God. But emotionally we usually don’t notice anything. Our prayers are answered by faith, not by our feelings. The feelings will come later on.

In praying with nicotine and alcohol addicted people I have learned: At the moment when they pray for deliverance they don’t notice anything. They receive the answer by faith. But a few hours later they notice that they don’t have any craving for tobacco or alcohol anymore. At this moment they have received the practical answer to their prayer.
Jesus said in Mark 11:24 NKJV: “Therefore I say to you, whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them.”

Ellen G. White said: “We need look for no outward evidence of the blessing. The gift is in the promise, and we may go about our work assured that what God has promised He is able to perform, and that the gift, which we already possess, will be realized when we need it most.” 122

So we shouldn’t be searching for outward proof or an emotional experience. Roger J. Morneau said: “The spirits [demons] would encourage people to listen to their feelings instead of the word of Christ and His prophets. In no surer way could the spirits obtain control of people’s lives without the individuals realizing what was happening.” 123

Praying with promises opens God’s treasury for us. Our loving heavenly Father opens an inexhaustible account for us. “They (the disciples) may expect large things if they have faith in His promises.” 124

Ellen White says: “… plead for the Holy Spirit. God stands behind of every promise He has made. With your Bibles in your hands, say: ‘I have done as Thou hast said. I present Thy promise, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.’ Christ declares: ‘What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.’ ‘Whosoever ye shall ask in My name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.’ (Matthew 7:7; Mark 11:24; Joh 14:13)” 125

TWO GROUPS OF PROMISES

At the same time it is important to make a careful distinction between the promises in the Bible. “The spiritual promises - for forgiveness of sin, for the Holy Spirit, for power to do His work - are always available (see Acts 2:38,39). But the promises for temporal blessings, even for life itself, are given on occasion and withheld on occasion, as God’s providence sees best.” 126

125 Ellen G. White, Testimony Treasure, vol. 3, p. 213.2
126 Morris L. Venden, 95 Theses on Righteousness by Faith (Pacific Press 1987), p. 60
Here is an example: Isa 43:2 NKJV “When you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned, nor shall the flame scorch you.” God kept this promise in a wonderful way for the three friends in the fiery furnace (Dan 3). But on the other hand, the reformers Hus and Jerome were burned at the stake in Constance. We could say that their prayers weren’t answered. But nevertheless, weren’t they answered in a fashion that we aren’t acquainted with? Why? A papal writer described the death of these martyrs as follows: “Both bore themselves with constant mind when their last hour approached. They prepared for the fire as if they were going to a marriage feast. They uttered no cry of pain. When the flames rose, they began to sing hymns; and scarce could the vehemency of the fire stop their singing.” If someone is burned, they can only scream. Their behavior shows that God did intervene, just not in the manner which is readily visible for us. This shows me that the temporal promises still have significance for us.

THANKING FOR THE ANSWER

Now for another important aspect. When our requests have been granted at the moment we asked, then it is right to thank God for the answer in the next. Our thanks at this moment expresses our trust in God that He has answered our prayer and that we expect it to be fulfilled when we need it most. Some believers notice something immediately after they pray. But for many believers it is similar to Elijah’s experience: The Lord wasn’t in the storm, in the earthquake or in the fire, but rather in the still, small voice (1 Kings 19:11-12). This was also my experience. After a long period of time I thought nothing had happened. Then I suddenly noticed that many things had taken place in me without me realizing it.

CHANGE MY THINKING

This means: It is necessary to change my thinking at this moment: “… but be transformed by the renewing of your mind …” (Rom 12:2 NKJV)

Now it is correct to say: Thank you that you answered my prayer. Thank you for already granting my request. Thank you that I will experience it at the right time.

This is not self-manipulation. With self-manipulation I am trying to persuade myself. When I have prayed with a promise, then I have a divine basis for my changed thinking because I have already been answered through faith. In this case, if I don’t change my thinking, then I am showing God I don’t trust Him, but am relying on my feelings. With this behavior I am making God a liar and will therefore not receive anything.

It is also important that I act accordingly, even when I don’t notice anything. God always integrates the necessity to believe. He wants us to trust Him. Think about the crossing of the Jordan River. The priests first had to step into the water and then the water divided. Naaman had to dip in the water seven times before he was healed.

Maybe you are saying: “I can’t do that. I can’t even imagine doing that.” Please remember that there are a lot of things we can’t explain. To this day, we don’t know what electricity is, yet we all use it. Neither do we know how children learn to talk, but they all learn to communicate. “In the natural world we are constantly surrounded with wonders beyond our comprehension. Should we then be surprised to find in the spiritual world also mysteries that we cannot fathom?”

Let’s think about Prov 3:5-6 NKJV: “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.” Here we find clear prerequisites from God for this promise of directing our paths. Every prerequisite is also a commandment. If we aren’t sure that we have fulfilled the prerequisite, then we may pray for willingness with the surety that the Lord will answer us immediately. “… but if you are ‘willing to be made willing’, God will accomplish the work for you …”

Something small that may help: Do we know what we are doing when we have prayed with God’s promise, have fulfilled the requirement and then doubt being answered? We are making God into a liar. Under no circumstances do we want to do that. In this case, pray: Lord, I believe, help my unbelief. Then trust!

(Another reading recommendation: There is very valuable advice on praying with promises in the chapter “Faith and Prayer” in the book Education by Ellen G. White.)

PRAYING FOR THE HOLY SPIRIT

I think we have the best qualifications for praying to be filled with the Holy Spirit. But we shouldn’t forget that it doesn’t have to do with making God willing to do our will, but rather believing in His promises and His trustworthiness.

PROMISE FOR RECEIVING THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Lord has given us wonderful promises for receiving the Holy Spirit: Luke 11:13 NKJV: “If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!”

Hasn’t our heavenly Father made a binding commitment here? The requirement in this wonderful promise is: ask! Yet Jesus doesn’t mean to ask one time, but to make a constant appeal.

However, it is important to see the context here. We should also read the other texts which speak about the same thing, for example:

Acts 5:32 NKJV: “And we are His witnesses to these things, and so also is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey Him.”

The requirement here is: obedience! We can see here that we can’t support ourselves with only one text: we also have to consider the context of the promise. It doesn’t have to do with being obedient once with something that is pleasant for us. Rather, it has to do with obeying Him: our wonderful redeemer and friend. Obedience creates joy. Pray every morning for an obedient heart. Pray that the Lord will make you willing to do everything He wants to and will certainly help you accomplish it. This creates a good prerequisite.
John 7:37 NKJV: “If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink.”
Here it has to do with the desire for the Holy Spirit. If you have no desire, or think you have too little, then you may pray for desire. It is a request according to God’s will, which will be immediately answered. When we ask our wonderful God He will create in us “the desire and the accomplishment”. We may also pray for the desire for a close relationship with God, to love Him with our whole hearts, to serve Him with joy, to have a growing desire for Jesus and His soon return and reunion in God’s kingdom, a desire to read God’s word and to learn from it, as well as the desire to help and be equipped to help save the lost.

John 7:38-39 NKJV: “He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water. But this He spoke concerning the Spirit, whom those believing in Him would receive.”
Here the condition is: belief! We see here that our faith in Jesus Christ, our trust in God, is an important prerequisite for receiving the Holy Spirit. But when we pray with promises, then believing is easy.

Gal 5:16 NKJV: “I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh.”
We actually have a promise here, which is expressed as a command. When God wants me to walk in the Spirit, then that clearly means that He wants to fill me with the Holy Spirit. And He shows us here that when we are filled with the Holy Spirit, then we aren’t at the mercy of our lusts anymore. The Holy Spirit breaks the power of sin in us (Rom 8:1-17, especially v. 2). Through the Holy Spirit “the deeds of our body” are put to death (Rom 8:13). Think of Paul, who said about himself: “I die daily.” It is something tremendously valuable not to be at the mercy of the works of the body (Gal 5:18-21), but rather to grow the fruits of the Spirit (Gal 5:22).

We can compare sin not being able to invade our lives to the assembly of binoculars. In order for no dust to get into the lenses the room has to be over-pressurized. This means that the air moves outwards when the door is opened. No dust can enter. In the same way, when we are filled with the Holy Spirit, “you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh”. (Additional information on this subject is in the section: “Can a person remain spiritual?” at the end of the chapter.)
Eph 3:16-17+19 NKJV: “That He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might through His Spirit in the inner man, that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love … that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.”

Maybe we don’t notice any of the power for a long time. It could be like it is in nature. In the winter the trees are bare and in spring they are green. There are tremendous powers at work in this revitalization. We cannot see or hear them. But then we see the results. That is the way it was for me. I thank God that He gives me abundant power.

Another example: We have known for a few decades that we have electric currents in our bodies. They are there. But we aren’t aware of them.

Eph 5:18 NKJV: “...be filled with the Spirit” or “let yourself be continually and repeatedly refilled with the Spirit”.

Acts 1:8 NKJV: “But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me …”

The disciples were commanded to wait until the power came. They didn’t wait idly. “The disciples prayed with intense earnestness for a fitness to meet men in their daily intercourse to speak words that would lead sinners to Christ. Putting away all differences, all desire for supremacy, they came closer in Christian fellowship.”  We may also pray with this promise.

WHAT DO PASTORS SAY? (PART 2)

I reached my full complete ministry.
God is so good and has blessed us all through this amazing book. I am a retired pastor. When I first read this book, it changed my whole life. I have read it four times and conducted three seminars Steps to Personal Revival. After the second series of seminars, I felt that I have now reached my full complete ministry. P. I was blessed by the book Steps to Personal Revival It has been a touching experience for me to read this book. My life has changed, and after having read it several times in three months, I have shared this message with several churches. I have also passed the soft copy of the book on to all pastors at the Conference Pastors’ Meeting [Conference 80,000 members]. I found the book on the website Revival and Reformation of the General Conference. I was looking for valuable thoughts for a revival seminar. There I found the book in Swahili and used it in the seminar. It was a great experience for me. I pray that the same fire will reach every leader and every pastor and all the members of our church.

I put off reading because I thought I already knew it to well. I was so wrong.
I praise the Lord for the booklet Steps to Personal Revival. ...I remember being given this booklet in January, but I put off reading because I thought I already knew it to well. I was so wrong. Then as I seek again for the baptism of the Holy Spirit, 3 or 4 weeks ago, a colleague sent me a pdf copy of this booklet. I was so excited that it came, while I needed it most. While reading I fell on my knees asking the Lord for forgiveness for why I had allowed myself to neglect this very important area of my life. Yesterday, Sabbath, I fasted and prayed and surrendered my life again to the Lord and asked Him to use me and show me clearly the specific ministry that He wants me to do for Him. My work requires me to travel to different countries every month ... I believe that this is a great opportunity for me to pass on this very important message through the power of the Holy Spirit to our brothers and sisters. M. A. EE130518 from Philippines, #109
Personal Thoughts and Discussion Guide

1. When we claim promises in prayer, why can we expect this prayer to be answered?

2. What am I saying to God when I have claimed a promise in prayer and don’t expect it to be answered?

3. What are the two categories of promises? What is the difference between these two groups?

4. List a few promises dealing with the Holy Spirit:

Our Prayer Time

- Contact your prayer partner and discuss the topic.
- Pray with your prayer partner …
  1. that the Lord fills you with the Holy Spirit.
  2. that your prayers will be strengthened through claiming promises.
  3. thank God that His word doesn’t return empty.
NO POSITIVE RESULT …?

“A young man was looking for counsel, since he wanted to be filled with the Holy Spirit. He was really struggling. The pastor asked him: ‘Have you completely submitted your will to God?’ ‘I don’t think I completely have.’ ‘Well’, said the pastor, ‘then it won’t do any good to pray [to be filled with the Holy Spirit], till you have completely submitted your will to God. Don’t you want to submit your will to God now?’ ‘I can’t’, he replied. ‘Are you willing for God to do it for you?’ ‘Yes’, he answered. ‘Then ask Him to do it.’ He prayed: ‘Oh God, empty me from my own will. Bring me into complete submission to your will. Lay down my will for me. I pray in Jesus’ name.’ Then the pastor asked: ‘Did it happen?’ ‘It must have’, he said. ‘I asked God for something according to His will and I know that He answered me and that I have that which I prayed for (1 John 5:14-15). Yes, it has happened—my will has been laid down.’ Then the pastor said: ‘Now pray for the baptism of the Holy Spirit [being filled with the Holy Spirit].’ He prayed: ‘Oh God, baptize me now with Your Holy Spirit. I pray in Jesus’ name.’ And it happened immediately when he laid down his will.”

THE GREAT DIFFERENCE BEFORE AND AFTER

Even though I was acquainted with praying with promises for a long time and used it in special situations and experienced wonderful answers to prayer, I thought for many years that it was good enough if I just simply asked for the Holy Spirit in prayer without relying on specific promises. I know that many have the same opinion. I don’t want to say that this is something wrong. But when I look back at my personal experience, I regret

---

132 Reuben A. Torrey, Der Heilige Geist – Sein Wesen und Wirken (Frankfurt, 1966), S. 150
that I prayed this way without any promises. For a few years now I have been praying daily with promises for the Holy Spirit, so that after my prayer I have the assurance that I am now filled with the Holy Spirit. Through an experience on October 28, 2011 I realized the great difference in my life: before and after. (more page 108)

Since I have started praying with promises my relationship with God has become more intimate and Jesus is closer to me and has become greater to me. This isn’t just a subjective feeling; I can link it to the following things:

- While reading the Bible I often have new and encouraging insights.
- In the battle with temptation I can remain victorious.
- My prayer time has become very precious to me and brings me great joy.
- God answers many of my prayers.
- I have greater joy and more “boldness” (Acts 4:31c) to tell others about Jesus.
- I have become more sociable with my own friends.
- I live happily through God’s grace and feel secure in His hand.
- In a difficult phase—my dear wife was ill and disabled for four years and then died—our the Lord sustained me in a wonderful way and strengthened me from within.
- I realized what spiritual gifts the Lord had given me.
- Criticism stopped. When I hear others criticizing I feel uncomfortable.

The change took place quietly. I noticed it first after I had spent some time daily praying for the Holy Spirit with biblical promises. Since then I am experiencing a different kind of Christianity. Previously my life with God was often laborious and difficult; now I experience joy and power.

I am sorry for the losses in my personal life because of the lack of the Holy Spirit, for the losses within my marriage and family and for the losses in the churches where I served as a pastor. When I realized this I asked the Lord for forgiveness.

It is unfortunately true in this area that we can’t lead anyone further than we are ourselves. We also want to remember that the personal shortcomings of individuals in the family and the church add up or multiply.

In order for others not to lament the same mistakes in their lives, I want to add a few thoughts.

In 2 Peter 1:3-4 it says that through an intimate relationship with Jesus we may “through the … great and precious promises … be partakers of the divine nature”.

This also means that the Holy Spirit is given to me through the promises. You can compare the promises to bank checks. When we present a signed check from an account holder, we can withdraw money from someone else’s account. As God’s children (John 1:12) we can daily withdraw with the checks (the promises) signed by Jesus. It wouldn’t do any good to present our own checks, even if we had the checks made by an artist. We need the signed checks from the account holder.

There is another reason which may encourage us to pray with promises. There is power in God’s word. Why did Jesus pray on the cross three times with words from the Psalms? Why did He defend himself and rout Satan with Bible verses during Satan’s temptations in the wilderness? (Matt. 4:4, 7,10) He said: “Man lives through every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.”

Jesus, the creator, knew that there is power in God’s word. “In every command and in every promise of the word of God is the power, the very life of God, by which the command may be fulfilled and the promise realized.” What a wonderful statement! The power of God and His life are in every promise. When we pray with promises we are using God’s word in our prayer. It says about God’s word: “So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void…” (Isaiah 55:11 NKJV)

I plan only to pray for the Holy Spirit with promises. When praying with promises I know that after I have asked for the Holy Spirit that I have received Him based on the promise in God’s word in 1 John 5:15 NKJV: “And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we have asked of Him.” When I pray without a promise, then I hope that my prayer will be answered. It’s better to take the time for a prayer like this and experience a blessed day, rather than to complain about failures in the evening.

I received an email which was written with great joy: “I never thought it was possible that it would make such a big difference if I prayed for God’s leading throughout the day with ‘my own words’ or if I prayed with promises from the Bible! Promises have always been very important to me. I have always believed in them, but I failed to claim them daily. My life with Jesus has gained a deeper, more joyful, more confident and calmer dimension. I thank God for this.”

134 Email to H. Haubeil C. S.
For this reason, I have decided to share an example of a prayer with promises for the Holy Spirit. Naturally, it can be shortened. It is important that we learn to pray for ourselves directly from God’s word. But the vital point is that our faith is strengthened by the promises in such a way that after we have prayed we have the assurance that we have received the Holy Spirit. We receive the Holy Spirit when we believe what we pray.

Jesus himself wants to live in us through the Holy Spirit (1 John 3:24; John 14:23). Ellen G. White said: “The influence of the Holy Spirit is the life of Christ in the soul.” The power that changed Peter, Paul and many other people is also available to us. He also gives us the verse, “that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might through His Spirit in the inner man”. (Eph 3:16)

Being filled by the Holy Spirit is the key to a life of faith, joy, power, love and victory over sin. “… where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.” (2 Cor 3:17b)

In a message I received it said the following: “Many church members daily pray the suggested prayer in twos. For the last five months I have been praying it with my girlfriend. Not only is everything progressing in personal areas, but also in the home, relationship, marriage, spiritually and in church—not in a manner that causes great conflicts, but rather it happens in a quiet, natural way. We are amazed and see this as God’s clarification process, which can make life easier in ways, since we feel God’s closeness more and more.”

CAN A PERSON REMAIN SPIRITUAL?

Yes! When we don’t allow an attitude of unbelief to develop and we breathe spiritually: “exhaling” by confessing our sins and “inhaling” by making use of God’s love and forgiveness and by renewing our prayer of faith to be filled with the Holy Spirit.

It is like the relationship with our children. When a child is disobedient, he/she still remains our child. But we feel a disruption in the relationship. The child may not be able to look us in the eye. This disruption is corrected by confessing.

A MODEL PRAYER WITH PROMISES FOR THE DAILY RENEWING OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Father in heaven, I come to you in the name of Jesus our Savior. You said: Give me your heart. (Prov 23:26) I want to do that now by submitting myself to you today with everything I am and have. Thank you that you have already answered this prayer according to Your will, because Your word says that if we pray according to Your will we know that we have already received it (1 John 5:15). And you also said that you would by no means cast anyone out who comes to you (John 6:37).

Jesus said: “If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him.” (Luk 11:13)

You further said that you would give the Holy Spirit to those, who believe in you (John 7:38-39), who obey you (Acts 5:32), who let themselves be renewed with the Holy Spirit (Eph 5:18) and who walk in the Spirit (Gal 5:16). This is my desire. Please accomplish this in me. For this reason I sincerely ask you Father to give me the Holy Spirit today. Since it is a request according to Your will, I thank You that have given me the Holy Spirit now (1 John 5:15). Thank You that I have received Your divine love at the same time, because Your word says: “The love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit.” (Rom 5:5; Eph 3:17) I want to say with the psalmist: “I will love You, O Lord, my strength.” (Psalm 18:1) Thank you that I can love my fellow human beings with Your love.

Thank You that through the Holy Spirit the power of sin has been broken in me (Rom 8:13, Gal 5:16). Please save and protect me today from sin and from the world, give me protection from the fallen angels, save me from temptations and when necessary snatch me and save me from my old corrupt nature (1. John 5:18).

And please help me to be Your witness in word and deed (Acts 1:8). I praise You and thank You for hearing my prayer. Amen.

1 “Only those who will become co-workers with Christ, only those who will say, Lord, all I have and all I am is Thine, will be acknowledged as sons and daughters of God.” Ellen G. White, The Desire of Ages (1898), p. 523.1
But a person can naturally become carnal again in the long-run. The Bible doesn’t speak about “once saved, always saved”. Our sinful nature still exists. “None of the apostles and prophets ever claimed to be without sin.”

But through a life with the Holy Spirit and with Jesus in our hearts the power of sin is broken so that we can live a happy and strong Christian life. Our righteousness is only in Jesus Christ “…who became for us wisdom from God - and righteousness and sanctification and redemption” (1 Cor 1:30 NKJV). This important topic is dealt with in detail in the booklet Abide in Jesus, chapter 3: “Jesus abiding in you”

If we have become carnal again by a lengthy neglect of the spiritual life or by the failure to breathe spiritually, then we can know that a compassionate redeemer is waiting for us.

It is important that we know the way that we can be renewed by God’s grace and hopefully lead a spiritual life forever. No one need remain carnal.

But remember both personally and in general what Randy Maxwell said: “Do we think that the resuscitation of God’s church from near spiritual death can be accomplished without effort?”

The abundant life here and eternal life in the future, the salvation of many people and our thanks for Jesus’ great sacrifice, is worth the effort. The crucial thing is meeting our Lord in the morning for worship. It is here that He equips us with power.

WE READ THE FOLLOWING ABOUT THE APOSTLE JOHN:

“Day by day his heart was drawn out toward Christ, until he lost sight of self in love for his Master. His resentful, ambitious temper was yielded to the molding power of Christ. The regenerating influence of the Holy Spirit renewed his heart. The power of the love of Christ wrought a transformation of character. This is the sure result of union with Jesus. When Christ abides in the heart, the whole nature is transformed.”

“Open my eyes, that I may see wondrous things from your law.” (Ps 119:18 NKJV) Thank You that you are leading me and I can say: “I rejoice at Your word as one who finds great treasure.” (Ps 119:162 NKJV)

Personal Thoughts and Discussion Guide

I invite you to print out the example prayer. Put it where you have your morning worship. At first, it may feel strange to pray a written prayer. Read the prayer, pray the prayer and within a short time it will become more natural for you.

1. Why don’t we need to have any reservations about using a written prayer?

2. What are the results of claiming promises in prayer?

3. A suggestion: study the two key passages for claiming promises in prayer in different Bible translations. (1 John 5:14.15 and 2 Peter 1:3.4)

4. Why is it worthwhile to daily place yourself under God’s protection?

5. How can we remain spiritual Christians?

Our Prayer Time

• Contact your prayer partner and discuss the topic.
• Pray with your prayer partner …
  1. that the Lord will fill us with His Holy Spirit today.
  2. that we daily place ourselves under God’s special protection.
  3. that we remain consistent spiritual Christians.
WHAT EXPERIENCES LIE AHEAD OF US?

Personal experiences, as well as experiences from churches, a conference and a union

THE EXPERIENCE OF A BROTHER

“For the past two years I have been praying daily for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in my life. My request is that Jesus will thus live in me in greater abundance each day. My walk with God [during this time] has been unbelievable. The fruit of the Spirit in Galatians 5 has become more visible in my life since I ask Jesus to live in me, to do His will in me and to daily renew me with the Holy Spirit. I have greater joy in reading the Bible, sharing Christ with others and I have a strong desire to pray for others; furthermore, my life-style has changed dramatically. I see this all as a confirmation of my daily search for God and my daily request for the Holy Spirit.” C. H.

He shared further: “I challenge you to pray daily to be filled with the Holy Spirit for six weeks and see what happens.”

PERSONAL TESTIMONY OF DWIGHT NELSON

We want to share a personal testimony. It is from Dwight Nelson, the senior pastor of the Pioneer Memorial Church at Andrews University. The prayer ministry of the General Conference sent the prayer letter to 40,000 subscribers.
How Steps to Personal Revival changed my life

“I never anticipated how this booklet would dramatically change my life—how I pray, how I preach, how I treat other people—it has changed my ministry. In all my years of schooling, preaching and teaching no one ever told me that the Bible and Ellen White call us to daily pray for a new baptism of the Holy Spirit. As a pastor how could I have worked and preached so long without learning about such an important truth!

But that is exactly what Helmut Haubeil’s book Steps to Personal Revival taught me. By the time I arrived home, I had already read the book. To date I have read the book four times and my life has changed. Ask my wife and the members of my church! For years I held sermons on receiving the Holy Spirit and held series on this important topic. But now I have discovered a way to meet Jesus every morning and to do what Jesus did as a human: He prayed for a new baptism of His Spirit.

I humbly confess that God has set the bar higher for my prayer life. I always spent a lot of time reading the Bible, but comparatively little time in prayer. Now it is the opposite. I spend a lot of time praying in my “closet” on my knees talking with God and only then do I pick up His Word so that He can talk to me.

My sermons have acquired a new freedom and intensity. My leadership in my team and church have risen to a higher plane. Suddenly, I am experiencing more “coincidences” (sometimes called synchronicity). It is as if someone is orchestrating my days and nights, my “coincidental” meetings, emails and conversations. It is as if the Holy Spirit is personally directing my waking hours (and even my sleeping hours). I have really gotten to know God as a personal and truly dear friend.

Why am I telling you this? In no way do I profit from it. But I am sincerely convinced that you will profit from it. Jesus is coming soon. We still have to reach a world, a whole generation with the eternal gospel. We can never accomplish this commission alone. We can only hope that we learn what Jesus knew, that we practice what Paul and the first disciples did. We need a DAILY baptism with the Holy Spirit for our life and our ministry. And we will only receive it, when we daily humbly ask for it.

I don’t know who you are, but I am praying for you as I write this. We receive the promised blessing when we ask for it. Jesus promised: “If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!” (Luke 11:13 NKJV) Don’t you also want to daily ask for the Holy Spirit?
40 DAYS OF PRAYER IN SERBIA

“In September 2010, we translated and published the book 40 Days—Prayers and Devotions to Prepare for the Second Coming. We made it available to all church members in our union. Then we organized weekly and daily prayer meetings during the following 40 Days in local churches and in members’ homes, where people fasted and prayed for a fresh outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

As this happened, a completely new climate began to develop in the local congregations. Inactive church members have become active and more interested in serving others. Those, who fought with each other for years over different issues (and had even stopped talking with each other!), reconciled, and began making plans for community outreach together.

Then in October 2010, during the Annual Council, “the Revival & Reformation initiative” was introduced. We gladly accepted it, seeing it as a continuation of what God had already started in our Union.

We have seen closer fellowship, greater unity and better common understanding among the Union officials as immediate results of these prayer meetings.” 141

40 DAYS OF PRAYER IN ZURICH / SWITZERLAND

“Our pastor and I each received independently from each other a book whose contents thrilled us. Its title is: 40 Days—Prayers and Devotions to Prepare for the Second Coming by Dennis Smith, Review and Herald Publishing Association. This book can’t be read and then just set aside. The contents changed my life.

Since our church in Zurich-Wolfgangk (with about 100 members) sensed a great need for revival and prayer, we planned 40 Days of Prayer for the fall of 2011. The book gave detailed and valuable information for this and in addition, 40 appropriate daily worships.

The topics deal with being filled by the Holy Spirit, prayer, preaching, the life of Jesus and spiritual fellowship.

So we started our 40 Days on October 1, 2011 with great anticipation and expectation. Fortunately, most of the church members took part. Prayer partners met to pray daily, text messages were sent daily and people

141 M. Trajkovska, Southern European Union, Belgrade, quoted in www.revivalandreformation.org prayed over the phone every day. One group met every morning at 6 a.m. for worship and prayer.

Our 40 Days were an unforgettable experience. God answered many of our prayers, especially in connection with a series of lectures on biblical prophecy, which took place at the same time. These lectures were a great blessing. We had many visitors and 20 people registered for the following prophecy seminar. (Follow-up in March 2013: Between 50-60 guests came, which hasn’t happened in Zurich in 20 years.)

God’s Spirit has made ongoing changes in our church and it is a joy to see how our small groups are starting to grow and how church members, who are eager to give Bible studies, find interested people. Those who participated now have a deep desire for the continuation of the work of God’s Spirit. We want to thank Him from our whole hearts and give Him the glory.”
Béatrice Egger, from the Adventist church in Zurich-Wolfswinkel.

40 DAYS OF PRAYER AND EVANGELISM
IN COLOGNE / GERMANY

Pastor Joao Lotze is German-Brazilian. He worked for 38 years in churches and hospitals in Brazil, as well as in a union and the South American Division. He retired in March 2012. He and his wife agreed to come to Cologne as “His Hands Missionaries” and work in the Portuguese and Spanish speaking churches.

“We started in Cologne with small care groups to encourage the church members and to invite guests. Based on our experiences in Brazil we carried out 40 Days of Prayer in Cologne. The materials were available in Portuguese.

The churches with Portuguese, Spanish and German speaking members joyfully started the 40 Days of Prayer. We prayed daily for 100 friends and acquaintances. These peoples’ names were written on a black board in the church. Not until we had reached the 30th to 35th day of prayer did we let these people know we were praying for them and at the same time invited them to a special Sabbath service for guests. 120 people came to this special church service. Christian Badorrek, the director of Personal Ministries for Nordrhein-Westfalen, held the sermon. Some of the guests cried with joy when they saw their names on the board.

Afterwards, Antonio Goncalves, an evangelist from Brazil, held an evangelistic series for 15 days. Each evening he spoke for 1.5 hours (with The title of the series was: ‘Let the Bible surprise you’. The topics had to do with the second coming, as well as topics from Daniel and Revelation. The lectures and the songs were translated from Portuguese into German. There were small choirs and good music each evening. Every evening closed with an altar call. We are thankful for the good reactions. The church members prayed intensively, especially for the people from the 40 Days of Prayer.

Our church sanctuary seats 80 people. But more than 100 people came. On the weekends the church was full and during the week there were about 60 people. 32 guests attended regularly. This led to 8 baptisms and 14 people joining the baptismal class. By the end of the year 13 people were baptized.

We have had many surprising experiences. It was difficult to find a translator. A catholic teacher offered to help. But she didn’t have much experience with the Bible. Then we prayed for a protestant translator. Soon afterwards we got to know a lady in a restaurant, who explained that she translated with great joy from Portuguese to German in the Pentecostal church. She was our translator for the evangelistic series and she was also baptized.

Maria, the translator, asked if she could invite her friend Elisabeth to come. She is the leader of a small Columbian church in Cologne with 13 members. She came and brought members from her church with her. Since then two of these people have also been baptized. Elisabeth and her family are now receiving Bible studies.

Another experience is connected with the Hope Channel. A German woman found the Hope Channel by coincidence and was impressed by what she heard, including what was said about the Sabbath. She invited her husband to listen with her. He also enjoyed the messages. One day when they went to visit her mother, they were impressed to drive along another route. Along the way they saw a sign for a Seventh-Day Adventist Church. They realized they were the Adventists from Hope Channel. On Sabbath she went to the church service. Then she invited her husband and then her mother to join her. Since then all three of them have been baptized.

Another experience involves a Russian-German sister. She took part in the 40 Days of worship and started to pray for her Russian speaking neighbors. When she told one of her neighbors that she was praying for her, the neighbor was very surprised and said that she was looking for a church that kept the biblical Sabbath. She and other neighbors came to the evangelistic series. Two of them have been baptized.
Another experience involves a woman named Jeanne. She had been a member of the Baptist church in Brazil and now she was searching in Cologne for a Portuguese speaking church. She got in touch with the Adventist church, received Bible studies and was baptized. After her conversion she called her relatives in Brazil and told her uncle, who is an Adventist, that she is also an Adventist now. It was a big surprise for her mother, her siblings and the Baptist church in Brazil, which she had been a member of. Her family in Brazil subsequently visited an Adventist church to inform themselves about the Sabbath. This has led to five people being baptized in Brazil: her mother, two of her sisters and other relatives. Now she is praying for the conversion of her other sister, who lives in Argentina. She wants to be together with them in God’s kingdom.

Under God’s leading we have had many other experiences. At the first baptism eight people were baptized—one each from Italy, Germany, Peru, Brazil, Ukraine, Venezuela, Columbia and Russia.

In the fall we again had an evangelistic series in connection with the 40 Days of Worship. Jimmy Cardoso and his wife, who originally come from Brazil, but now live in the USA, held the evangelistic series. Although the series only lasted a week, we were able to baptize four dear people at the end. They had been having Bible studies previously. There were three Germans and one Italian.

Both of the baptisms were held in the main church in Cologne, which has 400 members and a beautiful baptismal facility.

We thank God that He surprised us in such a great way. I am convinced that He still has even greater experiences waiting for us. Please keep us in your prayers.” João Lotze, Cologne, Germany

Vital Intercession: “I first just simply read the book [the 40 Days book] through. From the first page on I was very impressed. We shouldn’t only pray for someone, but also affectionately care for them. This makes intercession come alive. Unfortunately, I had never seen intercession in this way before. Living out your faith! I am convinced that it is just as important for the person, who is praying, as it is for the person, who is being prayed for. Likewise, it convinced me from the start that the fellowship in the church would be strengthened. Oh, I hope that such fellowship will happen as it is described in the last chapters of the book. To be honest, I had to cry, because I have yearned for such fellowship for a long time. I am convinced that the book ‘Christ in me’ nurtures us and frees us from our own accomplishments. I have read several books about ‘Christ in me’, but this book seems to be the most helpful. I believe that your prayer life will be strengthened by this book, that the fellowship in the church will be nurtured and that it will make intercession more alive. This book gives me hope for myself, for the church and for the world. I thank God for this book. Next, I plan to study the 40 Days guide book, pray over it and then take it wherever God shows me.”

A few weeks later I received another email from this sister. “As you know I simply read the book through at first. But since I have started to study the worships with my prayer partner I have discovered that they are even more valuable than I thought at first. I have gotten answers to things which I hadn’t been able to on my own. Thank God for my prayer partner, who is participating intensively and actively.” H. K.

Not sure anymore: “The booklet Steps to Personal Revival has touched me extraordinarily. … Having been born in an Adventist family I believed I was taking the right path. The chapter on the ten virgins and especially Romans 8:9b: ‘Now if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not His’ really shocked me. I suddenly wasn’t sure anymore if I had the Holy Spirit and if He was working in me, because I was sorely missing the corresponding ‘fruits’ in my life. This Sabbath afternoon I finished reading the booklet and a profound and fathomless sadness came over me. Then I read the prayer near the end of the book and a deep desire arose within me to receive the Holy Spirit, to let Him change my heart and that God would form me according to His will. …” A. P.

Know HIM: “Some time ago I read your article on revival. I have been preoccupied with this topic for about three years. Now, I just started to read Steps to Personal Revival. I can only say AMEN to it! I am glad that in these pages I found many of ‘my own’ thoughts. I am under the impression that in our church we are missing the goal by an inch. I can’t shake off the feeling that we have lost sight of the essentials! Often it has to do with ‘what is the truth’, ‘how we should live’ or ‘how important prophecy is’, and I’m not saying this is wrong. But we overlook WHY God gave us these things! Doesn’t the truth aim for complete fellowship with God? Instead, shouldn’t these areas help us REALLY get to know God? Isn’t the aim of prophecy that we acknowledge God’s greatness and omnipotence, that we understand that He holds the whole world in His hand and directs it and that in the same way He can lead and shape our lives? What is eternal life? John 17:3 NKJV: ‘And this is eternal life, that they may KNOW You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent.’ In the parable the bridegroom simply says to the five foolish virgins: ‘I know you not.’ The aim of our faith is to simply know God, to have fellowship with HIM, so that HE can fill us as He filled the temple back then (2 Chron 5:13-14). And when He flows through us, fills our whole being, then we aren’t living, but rather Christ is living in us.” (Author known by editor)

AMAZING ANSWERS TO INTERCESSION

“The second 40 Days book from D. Smith is an unbelievable blessing for me. Some of the people I have prayed for have experienced a 180° turnabout in their lives.

During the 40 Days I had a deep spiritual conversation with a friend. He told me that His life had taken a different course in the last few weeks. He had a greater need to pray, was reflecting more on God’s word and was able to let things go that had been valuable and desirable to him before. I got up my courage and told him about the 40 Days book and also told him that he was one of the five people that I was praying for. Then he responded in positive surprise: ‘So you are responsible for this whole thing.’

A girl made the decision to dedicate her life 100% to God. Although she had been a believer since she was a child, she had been living without God. She had no interest in faith and was completely ensnared in a worldly life. She has completely changed now; everyone who knew her and sees her now is amazed. She is studying the Bible with me now and is taking part in the 40 Days program in our church and wants to encourage others to have a more serious faith-life.

Another young girl, who I prayed for, had to take part in a week-long training course and had to stay in accommodation together with the other participants. She was worried about spending this time with all these strangers. One day before she left I encouraged her in prayer and told her that I had been praying for her for quite a while. So we prayed that God would give her peace in this situation and that He would make this experience an answer to prayer. During the training course she called me and excitedly told me that God had done something unbelievable with her. He not only had given her perfect peace, but He had also given her the courage not to take part in the evening amusements, which consisted of discos, alcohol, etc.
After the 40 Days I have continued praying for these people, since I have heard and seen the great ways in which God answers prayer.” A. M. (shortened version)

HOW GOD WORKS THROUGH INTERCESSION

“In the last five years I had gotten completely out of touch with an important person to me. He seemed to ignore my messages. I had heard that he hadn’t been going to church anymore over the past three years. (He had grown up in the church.) And that he was in a relationship with a non-Christian woman. I put this young man on my prayer list, even though I didn’t think it would be possible to get back in touch with him, since he lived 600 km away and never answered me. Nevertheless, I prayed for a ‘sign of life’.

On short notice I heard about the upcoming baptism of his brother, which ‘just happened’ to be taking place near me and was on a date during the 40 Days of Prayer (it had originally been planned for another date). I decided to attend—and met him! We were able to have a very deep discussion and he told me that for some time he had had an increasingly great need to come back to God, but that he didn’t have the strength to change his lifestyle. I told him that for the past 20 days I had been praying intensively for him and that even before that he had been on my prayer list. He was speechless that exactly during this time he had felt God working on him.

During the very spiritual baptismal service he was very moved and when the pastor made an appeal, I could feel the battle that was taking place in him and after a long struggle he finally fell on his knees and started to cry. He surrendered himself to God again! At the end of the evening, he told me that he had decided to attend church regularly again and to change his lifestyle. He never expected this weekend to end in this way.

A few weeks later I met him at a youth mission conference, which again strengthened him and built him up. I thank God for the repentance of a beloved person.” M. H.

The Miracle of Spiritual Healing
One morning after I had read the daily worship on www.revivalandreformation.org, I went to the section “Featured Resources”. There I saw a booklet with the title Steps to Personal Revival by Helmut Haubeil. As I read, I realized that I had seldom asked for the Holy Spirit in my life. I went to church, had daily worship and even gave a few Bible studies. But my spiritual life lacked depth. I felt disconnected. God answered my prayer and I longed for more.

Up to this point I had experienced God working in my life—He had helped me out of depression and supported me in my darkest moment—an attempted suicide. I had grown up under extremely troubled circumstances. For years I hadn’t had any contact with my father, but recently we had spoken on the telephone since he was seriously ill and had been in the hospital for a long time. He thought his life was coming to an end and for the first time in 60 years he apologized for the abuse and neglect of our family. Our conversation didn’t make the situation any better, but it brought all the pain I had experienced to my consciousness. I had very little help through relationships and didn’t want to live anymore and decided to take my life. But God protected me and began to heal my wounds.

At this time, I got hold of the booklet Steps to Personal Revival. It shows the steps to be filled with the Holy Spirit. What a change I have since experienced! Now I daily pray to be filled with the Holy Spirit and can hardly wait to see what God will do next in my life. It is hard for me to ask and wait on the Lord and to trust His faithfulness, since I grew up in a very difficult family. But I am learning to trust my heavenly Father and this trust is replacing my need to have everything under control and to protect myself from pain. I yearn to be free in Jesus and to be led by Him. And I am so thankful for the suggestions in the booklet that lead me to the gift of the Holy Spirit. I have discovered that while reading the Bible the words go directly to my heart. It isn’t simply reading the Bible anymore, but rather it is personal fellowship and a growing relationship with Christ. God is giving me the deeper relationship that I yearned for!

I had worked through the process of really forgiving my father and thought that I had made progress. But when I read the booklet (Steps to Personal Revival) the Holy Spirit showed me deep-seated resentment that I thought I had conquered. Far too often we cling to resentment as justification for some wrong that was done to us. But I have learned that we have to let go of these feelings, if we want to receive God’s Spirit in fullness. I had to make the decision to let them go. By God’s grace my heart was stirred by compassion for my father as a lost person and I started to earnestly pray for his salvation. Not long afterwards, my father called my sister and in tears told her “Jesus loves me, Jesus loves me.” He shared with her that he had read through the gospel of John and was deeply impressed that Jesus had died for him. Everyone that knows him would say: “That isn’t like him at all!” But God answered my prayers in a remarkable way.

Recently I ordered 10 copies of the booklet and gave them to members of my church—they also wanted to pray for the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. In the meantime, I have seen how Steps to Personal Revival has enriched their lives. How many of us go our own way as Christians without connecting to the power of the Spirit? I fear many of us go to church, outwardly look like good Christians, but are inwardly empty. I am starting to experience what God promised: He can do much more than we can ask or imagine. Do you have a similar problem to mine? God can fill you with His Spirit and give you real help. He can do the same thing for you as He did for me.” D. A.

THE CHURCH IN LUDWIGSBURG / BADEN-WUERTTEMBERG, GERMANY

“At first we studied the 40 Days book as a couple and experienced great personal benefit and blessings during the time of prayer. Afterwards, we organized a prayer meeting twice a week in the church and read the book with the church members. We distinctly experienced God’s blessing and leading and experienced many miracles during the 40 Days. As a church God refreshed and revived us: church members, who had never had the courage to speak with strangers, suddenly spoke with strangers by their own initiative. God is binding us as a church closer together through prayer together. We had the privilege of having special experiences in the intercession and support of the five people that we prayed for during the 40 Days. God worked in a special way in these people’s lives. Again and again people from the street suddenly appear on Sabbath in the church service. We are giving Bible studies to one of these families. They had gotten acquainted with the Sabbath through videos on the internet and the book The Great Controversy and had been searching for a church for some time.” Katja and Christian Schindler, Seventh-Day Adventist Church in Ludwigsburg (shortened version).

40 DAYS EXPERIENCE

“Everything started with a seminar on Steps to Personal Revival. At that time a desire grew within me to experience God in my daily life. Then I heard about the 40 Days of prayer and worship. It was immediately clear to me—I wanted to experience this adventure. Actually, I didn’t know what I was getting myself into. Finding a suitable prayer partner (which is part of the program) wasn’t difficult. The challenge for me was to find time for each other every day for 40 days. As a nurse I have very irregular working hours. I hadn’t even thought about that. Nonetheless, God blessed my decision from the very start. With longing I waited for those precious minutes of the day in which we could share with each other about the topic and plead for the Holy Spirit. We discovered that the prayers changed something in our lives. And we couldn’t keep it to ourselves. With every opportunity that came we felt impressed to share something. It was important to me to motivate other people to have the same experience. The effect didn’t fail to appear. Some church members were infected with our enthusiasm. Quickly new worship pairs got together. We looked forward to sharing every week what we had experienced. This ‘virus’ was also caught by quite a few of our youth. The 40 days ended much too quickly. We didn’t want to and simply couldn’t stop. So we continued our worship time with the book Maranatha—The Lord is coming by Ellen White. And God didn’t make us wait for long. Still during the 40 days He gave us many wonderful answers to prayer. Someone who we had prayed for during this time came into contact with the church again after a long absence. We were so happy. The people around me became more important to me. My desire to share God’s love with other people grew stronger. My life changed. Many of us got to know and understand each other better. Many take part in each other’s lives and are there for each other. Fellowship has a completely new meaning. The 40 Days of prayer and worship by Dennis Smith was a great help to me. It is easier than it seems to find a prayer partner and to experience God. The people dear to us will thank us for it.” Hildegard Welker, Crailsheim Seventh-Day Adventist Church, (a nurse on the surgical ward.) (slightly shortened)
JESUS OUR EXAMPLE

Jesus is our greatest example in all things. In Luke 3:21-22 NKJV we read: “When all the people were baptized, it came to pass that Jesus also was baptized; and while He prayed, the heaven was opened. And the Holy Spirit descended in bodily form like a dove upon Him ...”

Ellen G. White said the following about this event: “In response to His prayer to His Father, heaven was opened, and the Spirit descended like a dove and abode upon Him.”

It is amazing what happened during His ministry: “Morning by morning he communicated with his Father in heaven, receiving from him daily a fresh baptism of the Holy Spirit.” If Jesus needed a fresh baptism of the Holy Spirit daily, then how much more do we need it!

Our Prayer Time

- Contact your prayer partner and discuss the topic.
- Pray with your prayer partner …
  1. that the Lord fills us with the Holy Spirit.
  2. that we joyfully submit everything we are and have to the Lord today.
  3. for the people on your intercessory prayer list.
INTEREST AND SHARING

The Joy that we give returns to our own hearts. (German Proverb) How can I help others to experience “Life in Abundance” (John 10:10)?

HOW TO AROUSE INTEREST IN A SPIRIT FILLED LIFE?

What can leaders and churches do? Here are a few possibilities that show what we can do as leaders (e.g. as president, pastor, church or mission secretary, leaders of institutions or other key persons) in collaboration with church boards, churches and groups.

Possibilities

1. Worship groups of two: Study 40 Days worships as a married couple or with another prayer partner. Start with the first 40 Days book “Prayers and Devotions to Prepare for the Second Coming”, Dennis Smith, Review and Herald, and if appropriate later use the second 40 Days book “Prayers and Devotions to Revive your Experience with God”. Steps to Personal Revival or Abide in Jesus can also be used. When a married couple has worship together, it is very profitable and promotes mutual affection. Naturally, you can also have worship together with someone else. It would be ideal to personally get together, but it can also work over the telephone or Skype or other media. Worship groups of two have the greatest impact. God’s word recommends that we pray in twos (Matt 18:19) and work in twos (Luke 10:1). This mode of worship is the best prerequisite to inspire others to do the same.
2. Introduce or share literature. Example:
   The booklet Steps to Personal Revival (available free of charge or at low cost in all translated languages).

   More than 150 testimonies of readers and hundreds of conversations have shown that this booklet is especially appreciated in the following ways:
   - A proper self-assessment in relation to our spiritual status
   - Understand the two simple steps that lead to an attractive spiritual life and the certainty of salvation.
   - Know the great benefit of a life in the power and guidance of the Holy Spirit and what losses we suffer without Him.
   - To become aware that our prayers with promises have a completely different quality. We then pray more joyfully, with confidence and more depth. And after such a prayer, we can be sure that we have received the Holy Spirit.
   - Their great joy caused them to be witnesses and distributors of the books.

   Through the experiences of many we have learned that the use of Steps to Personal Revival together with the 40 Days books 1 and 2 lead to the best results. Steps to Personal Revival opens the eyes and is an excellent help to start immediately. The 40 Days books broaden and help strengthen the spiritual life. Furthermore, they lead to personal morning worship and many answered prayers.

3. Short readings during the worship service: Over a period of time selected passages about living with the Holy Spirit can be read during the worship service before the sermon (five to ten minutes). Recommended literature is listed under the next point. After a while, people can be encouraged to form groups of two or to implement the 40 Days concepts (see point 12).

4. Passages from our literature that can be printed in the church bulletin or they can be recommended during the announcements:
   - The Desire of Ages, ch. 73: “Let your heart not be troubled.”
   - Christ’s Object Lessons, ch. 12 “Asking to Give”
5. Share experiences: As often as possible share spiritual experiences during the worship service. Personal experiences can be shared or those from other church members or other churches. You can find testimonies on www.steps-to-personal-revival.info Just click on: “Testimonies”.

6. Four-part seminar as an impulse-Sabbath: This is probably the most effective method to quickly generate interest in a church. This is a special Sabbath with 3-4 presentations, starting with Friday evening, then during the worship service on Sabbath and again in the afternoon. A potential general topic could be the Steps to Personal Revival program: look at www.steps-to-personal-revival.info:

   - Friday evening is the ideal time of the week to share experiences, thus share a very moving experience. If possible, it should be a personal experience from the speaker. Another possibility is to talk about “Surrender to Jesus”. You can find suggestions for this in the booklet Abide in Jesus, chapter 2 “Surrender to Jesus”.
   - It is recommended to preach on the key thoughts from Steps to Personal Revival during the worship service. To be more exact: share 2-3 quotes from the introduction about the lack of the Holy Spirit. Continue with the key thoughts from chapter 1 “What did Jesus teach about the Holy Spirit” and from chapter 2 “What is the center of our problems?” (maybe divide it into two separate hours)
   - During the first afternoon meeting share the key thoughts from chapter 3 “Our problems—can they be solved? How?”
   - During the second afternoon meeting share the key thoughts from chapter 5, “The Key to Practical Experience”.

   In churches where the first seminar Steps to Personal Revival has already been held, they can have another impulse-Sabbath or another seminar using the topics from the booklet Abide in Jesus. Again, there could be four segments from the four chapters.

   It is profitable in preparation for the impulse-Sabbath to pass out the corresponding literature ahead of time with the recommendation to study it carefully. It has also proven profitable to start a 40 Days Prayer time the weekend after the impulse-Sabbath (see point 12) or with a coordinated reading of one chapter a week from Steps to Personal Revival (see point 7).

7. Coordinated Reading: One chapter a week—an easy and helpful possibility is to read one chapter every week or every day (even better if this chapter is read more than once) from Steps to Personal Revival or Abide in Jesus or from one of the 40 Days books. A group or the whole church can agree on a starting date. This can be done either in preparation for a four-part seminar (see point 6) or after this impulse-Sabbath. Each individual can decide if they want to read alone, with one other person or in a group. On Sabbath it would be good to read the key thoughts from the respective chapter in about 5 minutes and then invite people to share their personal testimonies. If there are no personal testimonies, then a testimony from someone else can be read (prepare ahead of time—see Testimonies). Then announce what chapter will be read during the coming week. You can order the 40 Days books under www.spiritbaptism.org. This book is now divided into 14 parts. Starting on Sabbath the book can be read in two weeks. The content can be studied in depth by reading through the whole book two or three times. This is an intensive method that bares good fruit.

8. Hold sermons on living with the Holy Spirit or encourage and request someone else to do it. There are excellent sermons by Dwight Nelson under the heading: “Ground Zero and the New Reformation: How to be baptized with the Holy Spirit”. Sermons starting with 2nd Sept. and his blogs of Aug. 30th and Sept. 13th are at: www.pmchurch.tv/sermons or www.steps-to-personal-revival.info

9. Hold Bible studies on living with the Holy Spirit or read them aloud.

10. Small groups or prayer groups can read and discuss applicable literature and pray together. In addition, groups of two should be encouraged, who go through the 40 Days worships and then once a week the whole group meets for discussion, sharing experiences and praying together (see point 12).
11. Mission Sabbath—Since a life with the Holy Spirit makes us missionaries, it is a good idea, on a permanent basis or for a specific time period, to reinstitute mission Sabbaths. This was a fundamental element of our pioneers. Our forefathers conducted a mission Sabbath the first Sabbath of every month. Either a dedicated person or a small group should assume responsibility for the prayerful preparation and implementation of such a meeting. If this is combined with some of the above-mentioned possibilities, it can contribute to constructive and happy hours on the Sabbath. In addition, it can lead to an awakening of the missionary spirit.

12. Study and discuss the 40 Days concept—This concept is presented in the 40 Days books 1, 2 and 3 under the section, “Introduction and Overview”. Subsequently, it can be discussed in the church board, mission board or conference board. This concept can also be presented at pastoral meetings, elders meetings, mission meetings and youth meetings, at retreats, district meetings and mission schools. This concept helps in the following areas:

- Helps to have a more intimate relationship with Jesus through the Holy Spirit.
- Helps strengthen prayer life (alone, in pairs or groups).
- Helps deepen our personal relationships.
- Helps to strengthen the spiritual life through the 40 Days worships on the Holy Spirit.
- Facilitates intercession for lost or unreached people and facilitates contacting them.
- Helps support evangelism, care groups or Bible studies.

This is achieved in three spiritual steps:

- Personal spiritual revitalization through the 40 Days worships in groups of two.
- (Discussions based on the book’s “Discussion Questions” and daily prayer for the Holy Spirit according to the “Prayer Focus” sections.
- Spirit-filled intercession and each person contacts five unreached people or weak church members.
- Evangelistic activities, eg. presentations/seminars, mission-minded care groups, Bible studies, small or medium-sized expos e.g. health, creation or prophecy expos.
For those doing the organizing, the 40 Days concept (called “Instruction Manual”) is available if you click right here: 40Day-Instructions.pdf. It contains all the necessary steps leading to a fruitful 40 Days experience. The suggested spiritual path is the best preparation for a planned evangelistic series. In this way, leaders and church members are personally spiritually prepared. Through the intercession and each person contacting five unreached individuals, the field is being prepared for the evangelistic series. Different types of evangelism can be used. The 40 Days Books by Dennis Smith can be ordered through www.spiritbaptism.org

13. Pass out an information-sheet on the 40 Days prayer program to the church members. In addition, it is recommended to make an invitation for the starting date of the 40 Days series in your church.

14. Publish suitable articles in church bulletins, conference bulletins, union bulletins, periodicals, church websites, as well as in church newsletters and newsletters from different church departments.

15. Survey: After a presentation on the topic of the Holy Spirit, slips of paper can be passed out for a short anonymous survey:
  - If a person often or daily prays for the Holy Spirit, they can put down a checkmark.
  - If an individual prays daily with promises for the Holy Spirit, they can put down two checkmarks.
This is a good way to determine what the current status is in this area.

Prayerful preparation for and prayer during all the above-mentioned possibilities is crucial. It is invaluable as praying individuals to ask specific church members, existing prayer circles and even the whole church for specific intercession for specific requests regarding the implementation and impact of the church programme.
Neal C. Wilson: Something is lacking
I must confess that in spite of progress and victories in so many areas, I have become increasingly persuaded that something is lacking. We are not fully measuring up to God’s glorious expectations for each of us and for his church. “(Adventist Review, Jan.4 1990, p.2) Neal C. Wilson goes on to point out that he felt what was lacking was the infilling of the Holy Spirit. I agree whole-heartedly with him. The baptism of the Holy Spirit is the key to having God finish His work through His people. (Dennis Smith, Spirit Baptism & Evangelism, p. 4) Revival causes mission.

Revival causes Mission
I am 36 years old now. Also, I have been the only Adventist in my workplace for the last 5 years. This year I had 5 new positions open in my team. Of the 5 new staff, 2 are Adventists, while another, I soon found out, that we both were baptized in 2000 during Pr. Mark Finley’s campaign conducted here in Port Moresby; however, he is backslidden. This is my work to help this brother, and also others around me, through the influence of the Holy Spirit. Since praying for the Holy Spirit, for the first time I have handed out Steps to Christ booklets to 2 colleagues. I followed up today, and my female colleague has completed and wants to read another book, while my male colleague is yet to complete reading. I have them both on my prayer list also. I thank God for the Holy Spirit, and I don’t want to be a lukewarm Adventist. I am so excited to read and share Jesus with all I come in contact with. I think I may soon change my career as I’m struggling to incorporate my new found love for Jesus in my daily life. (I. M. 090518 #142)
(This experience was written within 6 weeks of living in full surrender and daily praying for the Spirit)

We are sharing your books widely - 1,500 pieces
A Message of Encouragement: My wife and I are sharing the Steps to Personal Revival (in English and Spanish) and Abide in Jesus books for free to anyone who requests one through our website. We have been sharing the books for 2 years, and have given away over 1,000 copies Steps to Personal Revival and 500 Abide in Jesus books. Thank you so much for the insights of these books. I think the book, Abide in Jesus is very necessary. Is there a Spanish translation? (AFB EE040619 From USA #88)

Our Prayer Time

• Contact your prayer partner and discuss the topic.
• Pray with your prayer partner …
  1. that the Lord fills you with the Holy Spirit today.
  2. that the Lord works a revival in us, our lives and our churches.
  3. that today we are a blessing in word and deed.
How do we pass on the message?
Which ways are there?

HOW TO DISTRIBUTE REVIVAL LITERATURE?

Goal:
A brother once said: “This message has to reach every Adventist household around the world. I will do my part,” And he is doing it - intensely. A sister wrote: “This booklet should be translated into all main languages, or best, into all.” She won over her conference and is now preaching this topic throughout all of the districts. Furthermore, through God’s guidance she has brought thousands of booklets into a neighboring country that wouldn’t accept the Christian faith previously.

Development and Finance:
Through God’s guidance, the booklet Steps to Personal Revival shall be passed on to all Adventist families in their own languages—free of charge or minimal price. With the help of the pastors, numerous conferences and unions have already passed down free copies to the families within their respective districts. Trailblazers were the Swiss-German Conference in Switzerland, the Austrian Union in Austria, and the Baden-Wuerttemberg Conference in Germany. This project developed through God’s distinct initiative. Through God’s influence and by His grace more than 900,000 copies were distributed by 2019. We would like to invite you to pray that the Lord will continue to guide us and provide the necessary means to further the project. We usually request funds from Conferences or Unions with strong financial budgets to cover half of the printing costs. For others, but especially for missions, with God’s help, we would like to finance everything ourselves. But the end-user shall always receive the material free of charge or low cost even in larger quantities.

A Sound Personal Requirement
We wish for you to reach others. A sound requirement for sharing is to have been personally blessed by this message and to have Christ live inside your heart by receiving the Holy Spirit on a daily basis. Please read in The Desire of Ages, p. 676.2 [egwwritings.org] the precious reference to the word of Jesus in John 15:4: “Abide in Me, and I in you.” This means two things:

- a constant receiving of His Spirit
- a life of unreserved surrender to His service

Why did Jesus give this hint? “These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy [the joy of Jesus is a fruit of the Holy Spirit, Gal 5:22] might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.” (John 15:11)

POSSIBILITIES TO DISTRIBUTE:

Prayer
It is essential that sharing the Gospel with certain people must be prepared through intercessory prayer. Ellen G. White says in Evangelism, p.341.3, “Through much prayer you must labor for souls, for this is the only method by which you can reach hearts.”

Distributing the booklet:
You can pass on the booklet by sharing your impressions and experiences with the receivers. These could be friends, leaders and people holding key positions in churches, conferences and unions, printing presses, mission projects, and other institutions. Another valuable opportunity is given during convention meetings at a booth or public distribution with the permission of the organizers. Keep in mind that every Adventist family should receive a copy free or at low cost.

The booklet can also be sent through the mail or through people meeting the receivers personally.

Distribution through the internet
A most contemporary way to distribute the message is by email. The message was sent to Australia and from there passed onto Mizoram, India. It also reached Pakistan via Brazil. You can read the message at www.schritte-zur-persönlichen-erweckung.info. You can print and/or forward it through a simple link to one or many in all translated languages. You can also make people aware that the website is available in English at www.steps-to-personal-revival.info. By the end of 2019, with God’s guidance and the devoted support of translators, the message will be available in 40 languages, with 10-12 more languages to follow shortly thereafter. Through God’s help, many more will surely follow.
Distribution through E-books
A free e-book is available on this website in ‘epub’ and ‘mobi’ formats. You can also order the e-book via Amazon for € 2.00.

Distribution through Social Networks
A very effective way to share the contents of this website or a link to the PDF books with friends and acquaintances is through networks like Facebook, Google+, Twitter or WhatsApp. Through sharing and inviting, you can reach your personal contacts, as well as new people in different countries and continents.

Distribution through Sermons and Seminars
All pastors and lay preachers have the wonderful opportunity to share this message with the churches through one or numerous sermons. You can do this through your own studies or through using the materials from the booklet. “I have never preached a topic that the church had already heard or read before. Through educational research I know today that it is absolutely essential to read about or hear such an important topic 6-10 times,” (Personal experience and advice of Brother Helmut Haubeil). Now as I know this, I have no problem to preach after the people have already read or heard the topic before. If you want, you can indicate that you are using the main thoughts and quotes from the booklet.

If you don’t preach you can request others to use this topic in their sermons. A Sabbath seminar with the general topic of Steps to Personal Revival should contain at least three topics:

Sermon: What is at the core of our problems?
Do our problems have a spiritual cause?
Do we lack the Holy Spirit?
How do I self-diagnose my Spiritual Life?
(Source: Steps to Personal Revival: Intro, Ch. 1 & 2)

1. Afternoon program:
   Our problems are solvable—But how?
   ▶ How can we develop a happy/joyful and strong Christian life?
   (Source: as above: Ch. 3)

2. Afternoon or evening program
Key points for practical application/ How to apply it practically (The Key to Practical Experience.)

- How can I practically apply and experience God’s solution in my life?
- How must I pray for the assurance of the infilling of the Holy Spirit?
- (Source: as above Ch. 5)

Personal testimonies

Personal testimonies about the following topics are very valuable:

- about personal impressions or insight that were gained through the reading material
- about the results of this message in our lives

Translation into your own local language

If the booklet has not been translated into your own local language, maybe you can—through prayer and God’s providence—find a person, who is willing and able to do it. Translators, who were personally touched by the message are of great advantage. So far, most of the translations were done voluntarily, since the translator also had a great interest in the spreading of this message. But sometimes translating does cost, understandably, if the translator has his income from it. Those translators were paid with “brotherly” wages. We appreciate if you can contact Helmut Haubeil personally with regard to translation matters. He has some good advice to share as he wants to make sure that the booklet is being released in the same format in every language.

CLOSING THOUGHTS

Through the Holy Spirit we have a wonderful leader in all life’s situations and strength according to the riches of His glory.

Thus our characters can be changed and we can become valuable tools in God’s work. Our daily surrender and baptism with the Holy Spirit will lead to a real breakthrough in our lives.

The Lord wants to prepare us for the greatest time in the world’s history. He wants us to be personally ready for His coming and that in the power of the Holy Spirit we can work together to complete the work of the gospel. He wants to lead us victoriously through these difficult times.
Let God give you personal revival and reformation through daily surrender and a daily baptism with the Holy Spirit.

I want to close with a Bible text and a prayer for revival:

“If my people … will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.” (2 Chr 7:14 NKJV)

Prayer: Father in heaven, please give us humility (Micah 6:8). Put in our hearts a great desire to pray and seek Your face. Make us willing and help us to turn from our wicked ways. Please fulfill the prerequisites in us and as a result of Your promise let us hear Your answer. Forgive us for our sins and heal us from our lukewarmness and apostasy. Please help us to surrender ourselves to Jesus daily and by faith receive the Holy Spirit. Amen.

“A revival need be expected only in answer to prayer.”144 “The baptism of the Holy Spirit as on the day of Pentecost will lead to a revival of true religion and to the performance of many wonderful works.”145

APPENDIX

RECOMMENDATION FOR FURTHER STUDY
An important suggestion: read this booklet, if possible, every day for six days. Educational research has shown that it is necessary that such a vital topic for our life has to be read or heard six to ten times before a person can thoroughly understand it. Give it a try. The results will convince you. A teacher tried it out: “These encouraging words captivated me: ‘Try it at least once. The result will convince you.’ I wanted to experience this and by the third reading it gripped me and I felt a great love for our Redeemer, which I had yearned for my whole life. Within two months I read the booklet six times and the result was worth it. It was as if I could understand what it was like when Jesus comes close to us and we can look into His pure, kind and loving eyes. From then on I never wanted to go without this joy for my Savior again.” C. P.

I have received many thankful and enthusiastic testimonies about their new life with the Holy Spirit. Almost all of them were from readers, who intensively re-read the booklet multiple times.

40 DAYS INSTRUCTION MANUAL

NEW EXPERIENCES WITH LIVING WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT
Our Lord Jesus said: “But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me …” (Acts 1:8 NKJV)

A special request: When you have experiences with living with the Holy Spirit in your personal life or when witnessing, then we would really appreciate it if you could send a short report to Helmut Haubeil so that he can share it in the Missionsbrief (a small newsletter in German on mission work). Please tell us if you only want your initials after the report or if we can share your full name and what church you attend. Please remember that your experience will strengthen others to grow in their walk with the Holy Spirit or to begin a journey with the Holy Spirit.

Personal Thoughts and Discussion Guide

1) The recommendation to re-read this booklet 6-10 times has proved to be a good way to bring a life with the Holy Spirit into your heart. A sister kept a diary of what took place during the first 6 weeks of her experience. She was so delighted that she wrote a long letter. What plans do you have for your future course of action?

___________________________________________________________

2) The 40 Days concept is the best spiritual and evangelistic concept that I have come across in my 50 years as a pastor. You can read about it in the introduction of any 40 Day book. Whoever wants the complete plan can download it for free at https://www.missionsbrief.de/40-tage-konzept.html (in English or German).

- 40 Days studies can be done either personally or as a pair and can also be done by telephone or Skype. During this time, you can for example study Steps to Personal Revival three times or continue on with Abide in Jesus or use any of the 40 Day books from Dennis Smith.
- During this time also pray daily for five unreached people and establish a contact with them.
- A “visitor Sabbath” at church follows the 40 Days.
- A week later Bible studies, home study groups, seminars or lectures start. Do you want to get to know this concept better?

3. What do others say about the Holy Spirit? How often is our request for the Holy Spirit important?

Our Prayer Time

Contact your prayer partner and discuss the topic.

- Pray with your prayer partner…
  1. that we will continue to daily pray for and receive the Holy Spirit.
  2. and thank the Lord for His future guidance in our spiritual life..
  3. that we will make the right decisions for our future course of action.
“Expect great things from God. Attempt great things for God.”

William Carey
Abiding in Him is not a work that we have to do as a condition in order to enjoy His salvation. Rather it is our consent to let Him do everything for us, in us, and through us. It is a work He does for us – the result and the power of His redeeming love. Our part is simply to yield, to trust, and to wait for Him to accomplish what He has promised. (Andrew Murray)

CHAPTER 1: JESUS’ MOST PRECIOUS GIFT
Are you acquainted with Jesus’ most powerful message? What functions does the Holy Spirit have?
How can our character be changed? Jesus on the Holy Spirit in the Parable. About the Leaven

CHAPTER 2: SURRENDER OF JESUS
Do I lose my own will? Or will I become stronger? What can prevent us from surrendering?
Does surrender to God mean that we have to give up our own will?

CHAPTER 3: JESUS ABIDING IN YOU
What effects does “Christ in me” have on my life?
The ultimate achievement: being imbued with the fullness of God.
The Effects of “Christ in you”. How do we get deliverance from the power of sin?
Will we become “carnal” again by sinning?

CHAPTER 4: OBEDIENCE THROUGH JESUS?
How can I live in joyful obedience? What is joy? How does obedience through “Jesus in me” work?
God has designed: Collaboration between God and Man.

CHAPTER 5: ATTRACTIVE FAITH THROUGH JESUS
How can oneness be achieved among believers?
What makes our faith appealing to our family and the world?
What changes in us make us witnesses? How does revival generate mission?
What does it mean to have success in life? What promises has God given us for a successful life? There is no strength in small plans. Our marvelous God wants us to think big. Do you want to be His coworker?

Jesus desires coworkers, who are filled with His love. Coworkers, through whom He can love others. Therefore, it is important that I experience the full extent of God’s love myself. (see Ephesians 3:17).

What an ingenious concept God has for us with serving, giving and helping! It is simply unbelievable what God has prepared for us. And – how do we serve God? Are we working with our human abilities for God, or can God work with His divine abilities through us? What is the difference?

Jesus said: “Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men.” (Matthew 4:19 NKJV) In what surprising way does Jesus make coworkers out of us?

Helmut Haubeil shares how he learned to lead people to Christ step by step. A personal relationship with Jesus is the most valuable relationship there is. How can I show this to others? What opening question can be used to tactfully and straightforwardly get to the main issue? What tried and tested tools are available that make it significantly easier for helpers and participants when talking about faith? These valuable tools are included in the Starter-Set.

Then a spiritual-missionary concept will be introduced, which shows how we as individuals or groups, as a church or conference can victoriously advance under God’s leadership.

May God give each of us the joy of being Jesus’ spirit-filled coworker!
STARTERSET – LETTERS TO ANDREW TO LEAD PEOPLE TO JESUS

These letters to Andrew are the bridge to practical experience. These are tried and tested tools to lead people to Jesus. There are 12 advantages to use such a booklet, which are mentioned at chapter 7 in Spirit-Filled Coworkers of Jesus. They significantly facilitate important conversations about faith, both for the helper and the participant.

This envelope contains one copy of each of the required letters. The illustrated design and the appealing content will please you. You will be happy to pass them on. You need a set for every person you want to lead to Jesus. You will experience great joy when you have been able to lead someone to Jesus.

The envelope is intended for notes: when did I give which number?

The usual order for passing distribution is:

4  The bet of our life: Does God exist or not?
1  Christian Faith put to the test
8  Prophecies about Jesus Christ – Probability of Fulfilment 1:10
2  Unique and beyond comparison: Jesus of Nazareth

I currently pastor two churches in California. I first came across your material when listening to Pastor Dwight Nelson [see below] on his weekly podcast. It totally impacted my soul at once. I had heard about other Holy Spirit materials before, but I confess that I never cared much for them. I definitely believe that for some reason, God has chosen this current time to reach more people with the Holy Spirit. And I’m so glad I have found it from your efforts.

One thing I can witness to you: Right in the first chapter we are exposed in a simple way to very powerful truths which call our minds to stop and re-think. And the process of reading multiple times is very effective. To everybody whom I talk, discuss and preach about the book, the Holy Spirit subject becomes more and more attractive again. It’s like we are hearing about it for the first time. I can see it in myself. I could not move out of the first chapter before preaching at least 3 sermons about the subject covered in it. I just don’t know how to better explain it, but I could not stop reading the book and the results of that were felt in my churches. I did spread the word, and this last year my district has shown a significant growth. All of that I attribute to God and the way the Holy Spirit has empowered our members. And we are looking for more to come in the new year!

D.R.    Jan. 2018    Excerpt

Pastor Dwight Nelson, Leading Pastor of the Pioneer Memorial Church in Andrews University, said that this little book [Steps to Personal Revival] has “changed the inside of me. I want to do the same for you”.

He preached a series of three sermons:
“Ground Zero and the New Reformation: How to be baptized with the Holy Spirit?”
He quoted from ‘Steps to Personal Revival’ and recommended it. That led to thousands of downloads and orders of books.
His personal testimony and the three sermons are at www.steps-to-personal-revival.info
Do you wish to have a happy and fulfilled life, a joyful life of faith with exciting experiences?

If yes, then this book is just right for you. People have shared more than 500 experiences with me of how they have experienced positive changes in their faith life by reading this book. Therefore, further insights have been added to this new standard edition. They show how Steps to Personal Revival can lead us to:

- Recognize the most precious of all gifts that Jesus offers us: the Holy Spirit
- A proper self-assessment in relation to our spiritual status
- Understand the two simple steps that lead to an attractive spiritual life and the certainty of salvation.
- Know the great benefit of a life in the power and guidance of the Holy Spirit and what losses we suffer without Him.
- To become aware that our prayers with promises have a completely different quality. We then pray more joyfully, with confidence and more depth. And after such a prayer, we can be sure that we have received the Holy Spirit.
- Their great joy caused them to be witnesses and distributors of the book.

God wants to make a big difference in your life. It makes a crucial difference if you work for God or if our wonderful Lord can work through you. Jesus longs for an intimate relationship with you. And He wants to get closer to others through you. Great blessings and joy come from re-reading the book multiple times. Study and practice the suggestions for six weeks (3 x 14 days) and marvel at what God accomplishes in your life.
