

Seeking REVIVAL

DAY 1 – JESUS' MOST PRECIOUS GIFT

“How much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!” (Luke 11:13).

I Have Nothing

“Lord, teach us to pray!” the disciples pleaded. They saw how Jesus connected daily with His Heavenly Father and longed for the same power in their own lives.

Jesus responded with a memorable prayer lesson in three parts: the Lord’s Prayer, the parable of a friend coming at midnight, and—in climax—the need to continually request the Holy Spirit (Luke 11:1-13). In the parable (verses 5-8), a man has nothing to feed a visitor who arrives late in the evening. The man hurries to his neighbor and asks for bread to feed the visitor, explaining, “I have nothing.” He continues asking until at last he receives bread to share with his guest. In this story we see that we have to come to Jesus in order to have something to share with others. When we want to pass on the Bread of Life, we often realize that we have nothing to give!

Then Jesus links the problem in this parable (I have nothing) with our need to request the Holy Spirit: “So I say to you, ask, and it will be given to you” (Luke 11:9).

Jesus Invites Us: Keep Asking

Here in Luke 11, Jesus emphasizes 10 times that we should ask for the Holy Spirit in our lives. I know of no other passage where He so lovingly urges us to take something to heart.

“So I say to you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened. If a son asks for bread from any father among you, will he give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent instead of a fish? Or if he asks for an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!" (Luke 11:9-13).

In these few verses, Jesus uses the verb ask six times and emphasizes the idea with seek two times and knock two times. These are all action verbs. He clearly shows that we must take action in order to be filled with the Holy Spirit.

The last use of ask is in the Greek continuous tense, meaning that we should ask not just once but keep asking—continuously. Clearly, Jesus wants to awaken our desire for the Holy Spirit with this heartfelt invitation. He knows we are missing something crucial if we don't continually ask for the rich blessings of the Holy Spirit.

In Christ's Object Lessons we read, "God does not say, Ask once, and you shall receive. He bids us ask. Unwearyingly persist in prayer. The persistent asking brings the petitioner into a more earnest attitude, and gives him an increased desire to receive the things for which he asks" (p. 145).

And consider for a moment, why did Jesus Himself spend so much time in daily prayer? Ellen White explains, "Morning by morning He communicated with His Father in heaven, receiving from Him daily a fresh baptism of the Holy Spirit" (Signs of the Times, Nov. 21, 1895). Indeed, Jesus was our example in this. Ask yourself: If Jesus needed a daily refreshing from the Holy Spirit, then how much more important is it for me?

Testimony and Challenge from a Church Member

"For the past two years I have been praying daily for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in my life. ... My walk with God has been unbelievable. The fruit of the Spirit in Galatians 5 has become more visible in my life since I asked Jesus to live in me, to do His will in me, and to daily renew me with the Holy Spirit. I have greater joy in reading the Bible and sharing Christ with others, and I have a strong desire to pray for others; furthermore, my lifestyle has changed dramatically. ... I challenge you to pray daily to be filled with the Holy Spirit for six weeks and see what happens" (C.H.).

Praying God's Word

Why don't we have more answers to prayer?

"Yet you do not have because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures" (James 4:2,3).

Dear Heavenly Father, please forgive us for neglecting to ask continually for the Holy Spirit. Thank You that if we confess our sins, You are faithful to forgive them.

Our request shows how much we value God's offer.

"If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!" (Luke 11:13).

Dear Father, thank You for promising to give us the Holy Spirit. We ask for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit now, and we thank you for answering. Teach us to rely on this promise.

God wants to give us life in abundance!

"'He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.' But this He spoke concerning the Spirit, whom those believing in Him would receive" (John 7:38,39).

Dear Lord, thank You for granting rivers of living water to those who believe in You. Please help us to live in daily, continual surrender to Christ so that You can fulfill this promise in our lives.

Personal Thoughts and Discussion Guide

We only share the questions from Steps to Personal Revival (Chapter 1) that are covered in the 10-day reading

1. What promise can we claim? (Zechariah 4:6) What could this mean for you and your church?
2. What important conditions have to be met in order to expect good results?
3. Which of the quoted experiences especially touched you and why?

Our Prayer Time

Contact your prayer partner/s and discuss the topic.
Pray with your prayer partner ...

1. for a heart that is receptive, eager to learn and is open to the working of the Holy Spirit.
2. for a clearer understanding of where you haven't paid enough attention to the working of the Holy Spirit.
3. for all the pastors, teachers and other leaders in the church—that they will experience the power of the Holy Spirit and be willing to be led by Him.
4. for personal experiences with God—how He can work through the Holy Spirit in you.

Additional notes for Group Leaders

from Helmut Haubeil

It is very valuable if some key points are highlighted during or at the end of the reading, especially if there is a time of prayer afterwards. Then we better remember it while praying.

In His prayer instruction (Lk 11:1-13) Jesus used the word: "To ask" 18 times. This shows us that the main purpose of our prayers is to ask.

In the parable of the suppliant friend (Luke 11: 5-8), Jesus shows us that we should ask until we have what we ask. So that we could easily believe, God gave us the promises. (1 John 5:14-15; 2 Pet 1:4) When we pray without a promise, we only hope we will receive it. When we pray with a promise, we know that we have already received by faith because God keeps his word.

Praying God's Word: James 4:2-3 shows us that prayers of carnal Christians (as a rule) are not answered, except for confession of sin, acceptance of Jesus as Savior, etc. Why? Those who have not given themselves fully to Jesus have a selfish disposition. (Rom 8:5) Those who believe in Jesus receive the Holy Spirit in answer to their request. (Joh 7:38) Faith means: to entrust oneself to Jesus, to bind one's existence to Jesus, to rely on Jesus, to be faithful to Jesus.
